#micasaestucasa

The most exclusive collection of Great Boutique Hotels ever brought together in Spain.

MI CASA ES TU CASA

Above all else, Spain is a country that is enormously proud of the hospitality of its people. A hospitality which, along with its unrivalled past, culture and deliciously diverse cuisine, has seen it become a worldwide benchmark for tourism.

Nonetheless, it is hard to remember in recent times a situation as delicate as the one currently facing the tourism sector. A sector which, prey to such uncertainty, now, more than ever, needs its people.

We at PREIPER Luxe have taken the first step. Over this period we have been working on bringing together what is probably the most spectacular selection of unique hotels ever created in our country. A collection of extraordinary hotels, full of soul, that bring together exceptional experiences, and which are reopening their doors in defiance of such an uncertain outlook, albeit working to updated protocols based on renewed operational practices to ensure your safety and make you feel right at home.

It's your turn now!... You have never been closer to discovering greatness.

Ready to take the next step?

N BOUTIQUE O HOTEL A

NOA BOUTIQUE HOTEL

Sustainability and technology hand in hand

- Opening: 19 June -

Rúa Concepción Arenal, 51. 15179 Santa Cruz – A Coruña

NOA BOUTIQUE HOTEL

Rest, good food, health and respect for the environment all combine in this boutique hotel where the personalised service and attention to detail combine to assure guests a quality experience.

Cosmopolitan as it is, NOA has lost none of Galician essence.

Located in privileged surroundings opposite the Santa Cruz Castle in Oleiros (Galicia), it is a mere 10-minute drive from A Coruña airport and only 45 minutes away from Santiago de Compostela. All of its 32 rooms —28 doubles and 4 suites— have terraces and sea views. It has a restaurant, outdoor swimming pool, fitness centre and bar.

With a menu based on fresh, seasonal produce, its Galician cuisine culture seamlessly combines with the most avant-garde dishes and culinary techniques.

NOA BOUTIQUE HOTEL – OLEIROS (A CORUÑA)

A jewel to be discovered

Oleiros is its Santa Cruz Castle standing on a small island connected to land by a wooden walkway; its placid vantage points and parks; its natural monuments, such as its Costa de Dexo-Serantes, a protected area owing to its environmental importance. It is the Mera Lighthouse , its Aula del Mar Marine Interpretation Centre; its beaches and coves; its boardwalks and its sports and rest areas.

A veritable oasis that lies a mere 10 minutes by car from the airport and A Coruña city centre; a magical city that looks out onto the sea and leaves an indelible mark on all its visitors.

LUCES

PALACIO DE LUCES

Spend the night in a restored 16th-century palace

- Opening: 10 July -

AS-257 Roadway, s/n. 33328 Luces, Lastres – Asturias

PALACIO DE LUCES

Palacio de Luces is the best kept secret in Asturias. A recently restored and refurbished 16th-century palace, previously owned by Victorero family, duly ennobled for its participation in the battles to reconquer Spain from the Moors.

Standing in a 13,000 m² gardened area and a mere two kilometres from the charming seaside town of Lastres, the Palacio showcases its magnificent surroundings through its enormous windows, vantage points and raised arbours while also proudly attesting to its Caribbean origin and influences in every detail.

Palacio de Luces has 44 rooms, a restaurant that specialises in Asturian cuisine, an old chapel built with the palace, several terraces to drink in the surroundings and a wellness area with a massage lounge, saunas and heated swimming pool.

PALACIO DE LUCES – LASTRES (ASTURIAS)

One of the most beautiful towns in Spain

Set in unrivalled surroundings, the Palacio stands a mere 10 minutes away from La Isla, Lastres and La Griega beaches, is a 40-minute drive from Oviedo and only 25 minutes from Gijón.

The experiences offered by a stay at this marvellous place are also marked by the natural surroundings, which is ideal for thrilling trips by quad, hill walking up to the Pienzu Peak (the highest mountain in Europe in terms of its proximity to the sea) surf classes, golf at one of the local courses, not to mention the wonderful culinary delights awaiting visitors.

Moreover, there you can also enjoy traditional local activities with our neighbours from Colunga, such as fishing net making or going out fishing with a fisherman from Lastres port and even preparing anchovies at the cannery close by the palace.

LA CASA DEL PRESIDENTE

A unique and exclusive place with a story to tell

- Opening: 25 June -

Calle Los Telares, 1. 05001 – Ávila

LA CASA DEL PRESIDENTE

This exceptional place seeks to showcase a part of recent Spanish history. Currently offering 10 rooms, it was originally designed as a retreat from the world where today's guest can feel right at home, in what is the only five-star hotel located within the historic quarter of the city.

Originally the home of the first prime minister of Spain after the recovery of democracy, it has a marvellous garden, abounding in vegetation, and which runs directly up against the Ávila City Wall, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Casa del Presidente has an outdoor swimming pool with a bar where you can enjoy delicious Castilian regional dishes in the open air, not to mention its light-filled glazed porch.

These gastronomic delights are excellently complemented by the hotel's marvellous wine cellar which is home to both regional and some international wines.

LA CASA DEL PRESIDENTE – ÁVILA

World Heritage City

The Casa del Presidente stands in privileged surroundings. Its excellent location, the quality of its services and its different rooms, which have lost none of the sobriety, intimacy and sense of history, make it the ideal place for a getaway.

Historic walls, houses, palaces, temples and convents comprise the city's eclectic artistic heritage, attesting to a fascinating past wrought by the several cultures that lived together there. History, art, mysticism, traditions, excellent cuisine and nature all combine to offer the visitor an enriching stay in Ávila.

PALACIO DE VILLAPANÉS

A journey through the history of Seville without leaving the hotel

- Opening: September -

Calle Santiago 31. 41003 Seville

PALACIO DE VILLAPANÉS

Hotel Palacio de Villapanés is a restored, 18th-century Sevillian mansion located a short walk from the Barrio de Santa Cruz neighbourhood. All the main city attractions are nearby, such as ‘La Giralda’ bell tower, the Cathedral and the Real Alcázar palace.

Once the home of Admiral López-Pintado, Marquis of Torre Blanca de Aljarafe, this is one of the most authentic places to stay in Seville, having been declared a City Site of Cultural Interest in 2009. A historic and hereditary gem, the hotel has 50 unique rooms, attesting to a perfect combination of tradition and modern day comforts.

Its spectacular triple-arched, wrought-iron entrance gate, its magnificent square-planned, central courtyard, surrounded by marble columned arches, constitute a stunning welcome for guests. The hotel has a wellness area, an elegant terrace with a pond from which to enjoy beautiful Sevillian sunsets and a highly acclaimed restaurant with a markedly Andalusian character as testified to by its modern-day Mediterranean cuisine based dishes.

PALACIO DE VILLAPANÉS – SEVILLA

Andalusian paradise

The early 16th century saw Seville become the most important city in the splendorous years of Spain's Golden Age; a city that ever since has continued to attract attention, both from within and without Spain, owing to its immense artistic, historic and cultural heritage.

Seville is home to three UNESCO World Heritage Sites, all of which are to be found a few minutes away from Palacio de Villapanés: the Cathedral, the Reales Alcázares palatial complex and the General Archive of the Indies.

The Santa Cruz neighbourhood, the erstwhile Jewish Quarter of Seville, is a charming enclave of narrow streets and hidden backstreets that are sure to transport the visitor back in time as they struggle against the suffocating heat.

FONTECRUZ SEISES

Hotel Fontecruz Sevilla Seises is a restored 16th-century palace located in one of the most emblematic and popular parts of the city, the Barrio Santa Cruz neighbourhood.

A mere 150 m away from Seville cathedral and La Giralda, its ‘Terraza Pura Vida’ rooftop terrace with solarium and swimming pool provides a spectacular panoramic view of the two architectural gems of Seville’s historic quarter. A Beach Club Slow where you can enjoy a refreshing cocktail, natural fruit juices and even beauty treatments.

The hotel’s 42 rooms and suites house Roman mosaics, Nasrid columns, flooring, tiles, Renaissance coffered ceilings and avant-garde furnishing.

Its pleasant, typical Sevillian courtyard serves a show cooking, buffet breakfast every morning and only the best selection of top quality, local, healthy produce. A fantastic brunch is served there on the weekends, which can also be enjoyed in the ‘Terraza Pura Vida’.

– SEVILLE

A mosaic of cultures

Fontecruz Sevilla Seises is located in the Barrio Santa Cruz, one of the most unique neighbourhoods in the world, a mere 8 km from San Pablo airport and 3 km from Santa Justa train station.

Legends abound there, every corner having its tale to tell, not to mention the fact that the interior of its blocks of buildings conceal great treasures, as its squares magically appear out of the blue as if constituting the centre of a complex labyrinth.

Barrio de Santa Cruz covers, along with the Reales Alcázares palatial complex, one of the oldest quarters in the city, the erstwhile Jewish quarter.

MOLINO DE ALCUNEZA

An oasis of peace to escape the daily routine

- Opening: 1 July -

Alboreca Roadway, km 05. 19250 Sigüenza – Guadalajara

MOLINO DE ALCUNEZA

Only a couple of minutes away from the historic, medieval town of Sigüenza lies Molino de Alcuneza Relais & Châteaux. Today, the walls of this over five-hundred-year-old flour mill house a Michelin-star, gastronomic boutique hotel run by Chef Samuel Moreno.

A typical, 14th-century building, it offers 17 comfortable, light-filled rooms with marvellous views of the Alto Henares valley. A charming, luxury service hotel that is a mere hour's drive away from Madrid.

Have a read by the fire, relax in the spa, go for a stroll around its garden, take a dip in the swimming pool or simply drink in the silence only broken by birdsong and the murmur of the young river Henares which flows through the estate.

The hotel breakfast has been selected on several occasions as one of the best by specialist critics.

MOLINO DE ALCUNEZA – SIGÜENZA

Rediscovering the senses

Sigüenza is a thousand-year-old, medieval town, the walls of which speak of history, legend and inherited traditions. Surrounded by beautiful, rugged scenery, the town boasts a delicious local cuisine based on local produce, while also being home to a variety of craftwork preserved by family tradition.

Along with Atienza and Medinaceli, the Río Dulce nature reserves, the Río Salando salt marsh micro-reserve, Tejera Negra Beech Forest Nature Reserve and the walks through La Lavanda countryside are just some of the pleasures to be enjoyed in the Molino de Alcuneza area.

- Opening: 17 July -

Pza. Del Juego de Pelota 7. 45002 – Toledo

EUGENIA DE MONTIJO

Located in the historic quarter of Toledo, the City of the Three Cultures declared a World Heritage Site, the hotel pays homage to the figure of the French Empress Eugenie, whose reign inspires its decoration throughout.

This is a genuine boutique hotel as attested to by its 40 elegant and cosy rooms.

Its spacious Lobby Lounge is particularly noteworthy, which takes up the hotel's centre and where guests can enjoy its cocktail specialities.

The hotel's gastronomic restaurant, Federico, is a lovingly reinvented tavern that serves traditional local fare.

A fascinating wellness area contains ancient Roman water elements, not to mention its different Mozarabic walls.

EUGENIA DE MONTIJO – TOLEDO

A wealth of senses

Located in centre of the historic quarter of Toledo, a mere 200 m away from the Cathedral, 10 minutes from Plaza Zocodover square and Toledo's main shopping area, Eugenia de Montijo is a special hotel, the ideal place to fully immerse oneself in the history of the city.

A mere one hour's drive from Madrid, Toledo takes visitors on a journey through time, with its architectural gems oozing that medieval air in a city that had been the capital of Spain in the Visigoth era.
