SPRING

The ideal season for golfing, for feeling like a Millemiglia veteran driving through Tuscany in a locally made supercar, or finally jumping up and down the 7 hills of Rome on a Vespa. The mild climate is perfect for exploring cities of art such as Florence, Venice or Rome, perhaps even taking advantage of the International Tennis Championships. Then turn North, to meet the sailors preparing for their fishing trips off the small harbours of Cinque Terre; or go further South, to experience Sicily at its best. Enjoy the Greek Theatre in Taormina, showcasing itself and the surrounding landscape even more than the open-air event of the day.

GOLF: THE NEAREST TO THE PIN

The game of golf is an authentic way of life for which Italy offers some unique courses - not only when it comes to scenery. Tee off from the crest of a Tuscan hilltop, hit your drive along the Sea of Sardinia and catch sight of the dome of St. Peter's Basilica from the green. In Italy you are always spoilt for choice, in partnership with the most exclusive 5-star hotels and depending on the season.

Indeed, the possibility of choosing a chef from the region alone makes the trip worthwhile - not forgetting the Ryder Cup 2022, hosted in Italy for the first time in its long history.

GAME, SET & MATCH

Tennis champions face off against each other in May, in the most spectacular of the eight Masters 1000 tournaments; one of Rome's most traditional events, uniting sporting competition, gossip and glamour, from the banks of the Tiber to the Stadio dei Marmi. What truly makes this tournament stand out from other Clay Slam events, is the Dolce Vita spirit that can be felt from the Roman maritime pines to the clay courts.

This is Rome's 'trendiest' long weekend of the year, with a programme built around exclusive access to finals and semi-finals, in a season that makes the eternal city irresistible.

VESPA, EVENTUALLY...

If you want to be a real Italian, experience it for yourself. Dodge the traffic in Rome on a Vespa; enjoy the privilege of fantastic views and discover the city's out of reach corners in minutes. This symbol of Italian design, made famous throughout the world by Gregory Peck and Audrey Hepburn in Roman Holiday, gave Italians mobility after the war. This memorable experience is the icing on the cake of a splendid trip in the capital of the Dolce Vita.

SPORTS CAR, WHERE THEY BELONG

Ferrari, Lamborghini, Maserati and even Bugatti! Italy is the motherland of the most powerful and captivating sports cars in the world: drive up and down the green hills of Tuscany, across the cliff edges along the sea at Portofino or Amalfi, or climb up from Lake Como to the snow-covered Alps, a totally unique experience. Visit the incredible Alfa Romeo museum in just a few minutes from today's most fashionable hotels in Milan, then travel a few kilometres for a test-drive on the Monza racing circuit, the fastest and oldest Formula 1 track in the world. Unless the trip has a different purpose: infact, nothing will delight an enthusiast more than returning directly from Maranello in his own brand new Ferrari, likely to be the most envied car one could ever own.

CRAFTING OF A PERFUME

Perfume is undoubtedly personal, but this affirmation hardly ever refers literally to the production of a tailor-made fragrance based on your own tastes, personality or even mood. The combination of different essences with the conscious use of hand-filtered extracts, guided by an expert who - drop by drop - mixes not only the most seductive molecules, but ancient artisanal techniques with modern high-tech instruments: what more could you want than returning to one of the unforgettable 5-star hotels in the centre of Florence, ready for an evening out with your own personal perfume?

STILL WONDER WHY GREEKS CHOSE SICILY?

“... probably no other audience in a theatre ever had such a vista... the view follows the long mountainous flank of Mount Etna, on the left lies the seashore, visible all the way to Catania, even Syracuse; and then the broad and panoramic picture is completed by the enormous smoking fire-mountain”, wrote Goethe at the turn of the 19th century. Taormina is a priceless jewel, nestled in the unique cradle of the Greco-Roman civilisation that is Sicily. Opera, light music or ballet: attending a spring or summertime performance at the Greek theatre of Taormina instils an incomparable feeling of privilege, which has always come over those who enjoy a trip on the splendid coast and sit down in a theatre that is more than two thousand years old, facing the bluest sea and the highest volcano in Europe. Sleep in magnificent 5-star splendour and enjoy the most panoramic and fragrant breakfast that you can imagine, right in the centre of the Mediterranean.

THE MALL SANREMO

The Mall Sanremo, an extraordinary place, surrounded by natural beauty, that allows its visitors to live an exclusive experience of fashion, elegance and hospitality, is the place to live a new shopping experience just a few miles from the French Riviera. The convenience of favourable prices, the most exclusive names in international fashion are the key elements of this extraordinary journey that combines fashion, fun and Italian cuisine. The pleasant climate and location's architectural style will make the visit to The Mall Sanremo a unique experience. A destination full of beauty, The Mall Sanremo is the perfect place to discover the most important fashion brands, and share a contemporary vision of style thanks to one of many initiatives and luxury services.

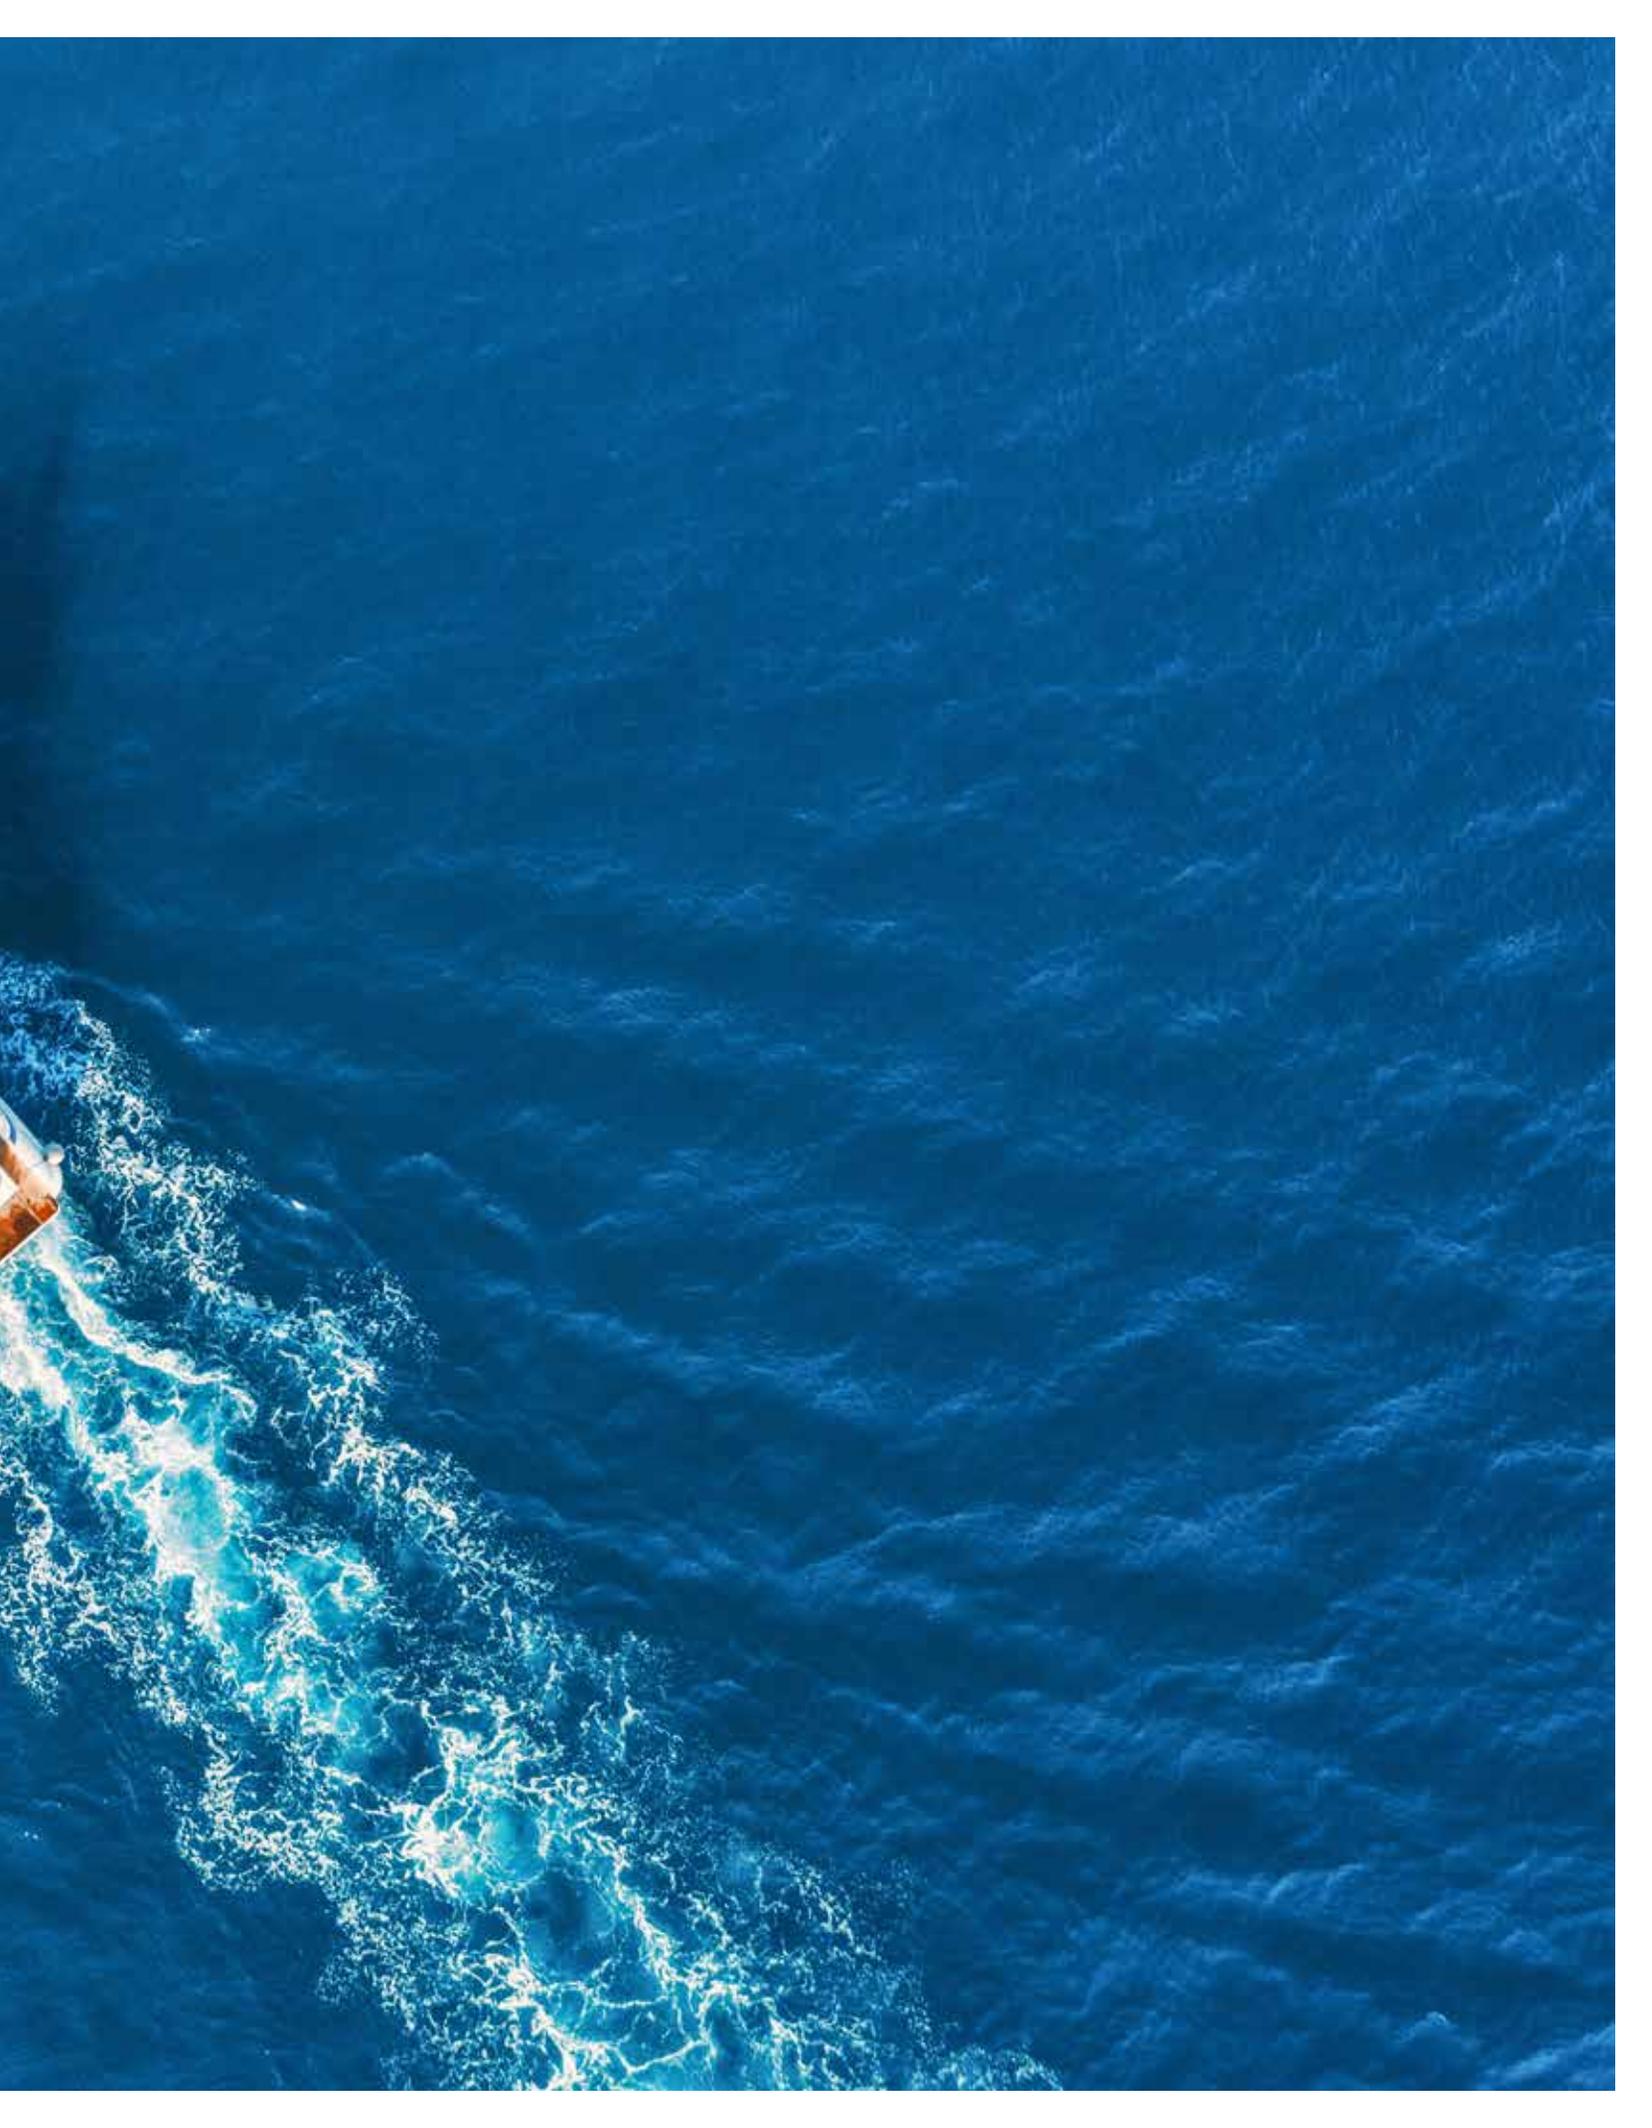

Via Armea, 43, Sanremo (Imperia) ~ Airports: Nice (66 km); Genoa (144 km); Milan (316 km)

SUMMER

The long beach of Forte dei Marmi shines in the white marble of the Carrara quarries hanging above, Capri's coves disappear into the blue of its crystalline waters, and the square of Porto Cervo comes alive with chatter, laughter and shimmer of light; but an Italian superyacht will always be an excellent choice to dive into the summer. Unless music and culture take the lead: choose between Verona, where performances begin in the evocative setting of the Arena, and the Baths of Caracalla in Rome, filled with the sound of open-air opera. Yet, seeing the sunrise live from a hot-air balloon, and floating slowly above Tuscany, will hardly be beaten by any drone-mounted camera, especially if landing near Siena to experience the strong emotions of the Palio.

SUPERYACHTS FOR SUPER-COASTS

It should come as no surprise for visitors to Italy, which has always been the motherland of the most coveted supercars - and whose shape sticks out like an authentic and unique large jetty into the Mediterranean Sea - that almost half of all superyachts produced in the world are made here. The abundant richness of design, technology and comfort are extraordinarily blended with the unparalleled beauty of Capri's rocky "Faraglioni", the bays of the Costa Smeralda in Sardinia, the Gulf of Portofino and infinite destinations, such as the Aeolian Islands and the coast of Puglia. Explore by sail or motor, with impeccable organisation and a team synchronised to perfection, for a day, a month, or more: with over 7,000 km of coastline and yachts that are entirely unique, exclusivity is a certainty. Not to mention the ground services, before and after boarding.

MUCH BETTER THAN A DRONE

Find an enchanting sense of peace and absolute freedom: experience the sensation of floating on a flight in a modern and safe hot-air balloon, in total silence and an almost surreal slowness. Experience a unique way of enjoying extraordinary 360° views of the country renowned around the world: soft hills punctuated with trees and towers of ancient villages, steep cliffs and impeccably tidy rows of vineyards. Everything you need before slowly descending to take care of yourself at the SPA of a romantic countryside retreat, with a perfect gourmet dinner to follow: slow and sustainable tourism, only for the chosen few!

A REAL DIVE INTO THE POP CULTURE OF SIENA

The Palio is, literally, the richly decorated standard that is given to the winning village quarter of a competition held in numerous medieval Italian cities; in Siena, for hundreds of years, this tradition has made ten horses the main players in bringing the joy of a lifetime to the residents of the winning “contrada”. In the days that precede the 2 July and the 16 August each year, Siena escapes from the globalisation of the third millennium in preparation for the race: being a part of this atmosphere, which is anything but touristy, is indeed a unique experience for all. Being able to enjoy the emotion of the galloping horses, from the private terrace of one of the historic buildings on the Piazza del Campo, is one of the most exclusive events that you could attend.

BLENDING ART WITH MUSIC

Where music meets art. It doesn't matter how much you know about opera, attending a show in the Arena di Verona or the Baths of Caracalla in Rome on a fresh summer's evening is an incomparable experience. Music and archaeology combine, lights and singing blend to create a unique and rare atmosphere; this is how you enter Andrea Bocelli's concert in Lajatico, in Tuscany, listening from the front row to one of the most famous voices in the world. The opportunity to attend one of these shows from the VIP area is a priceless privilege.

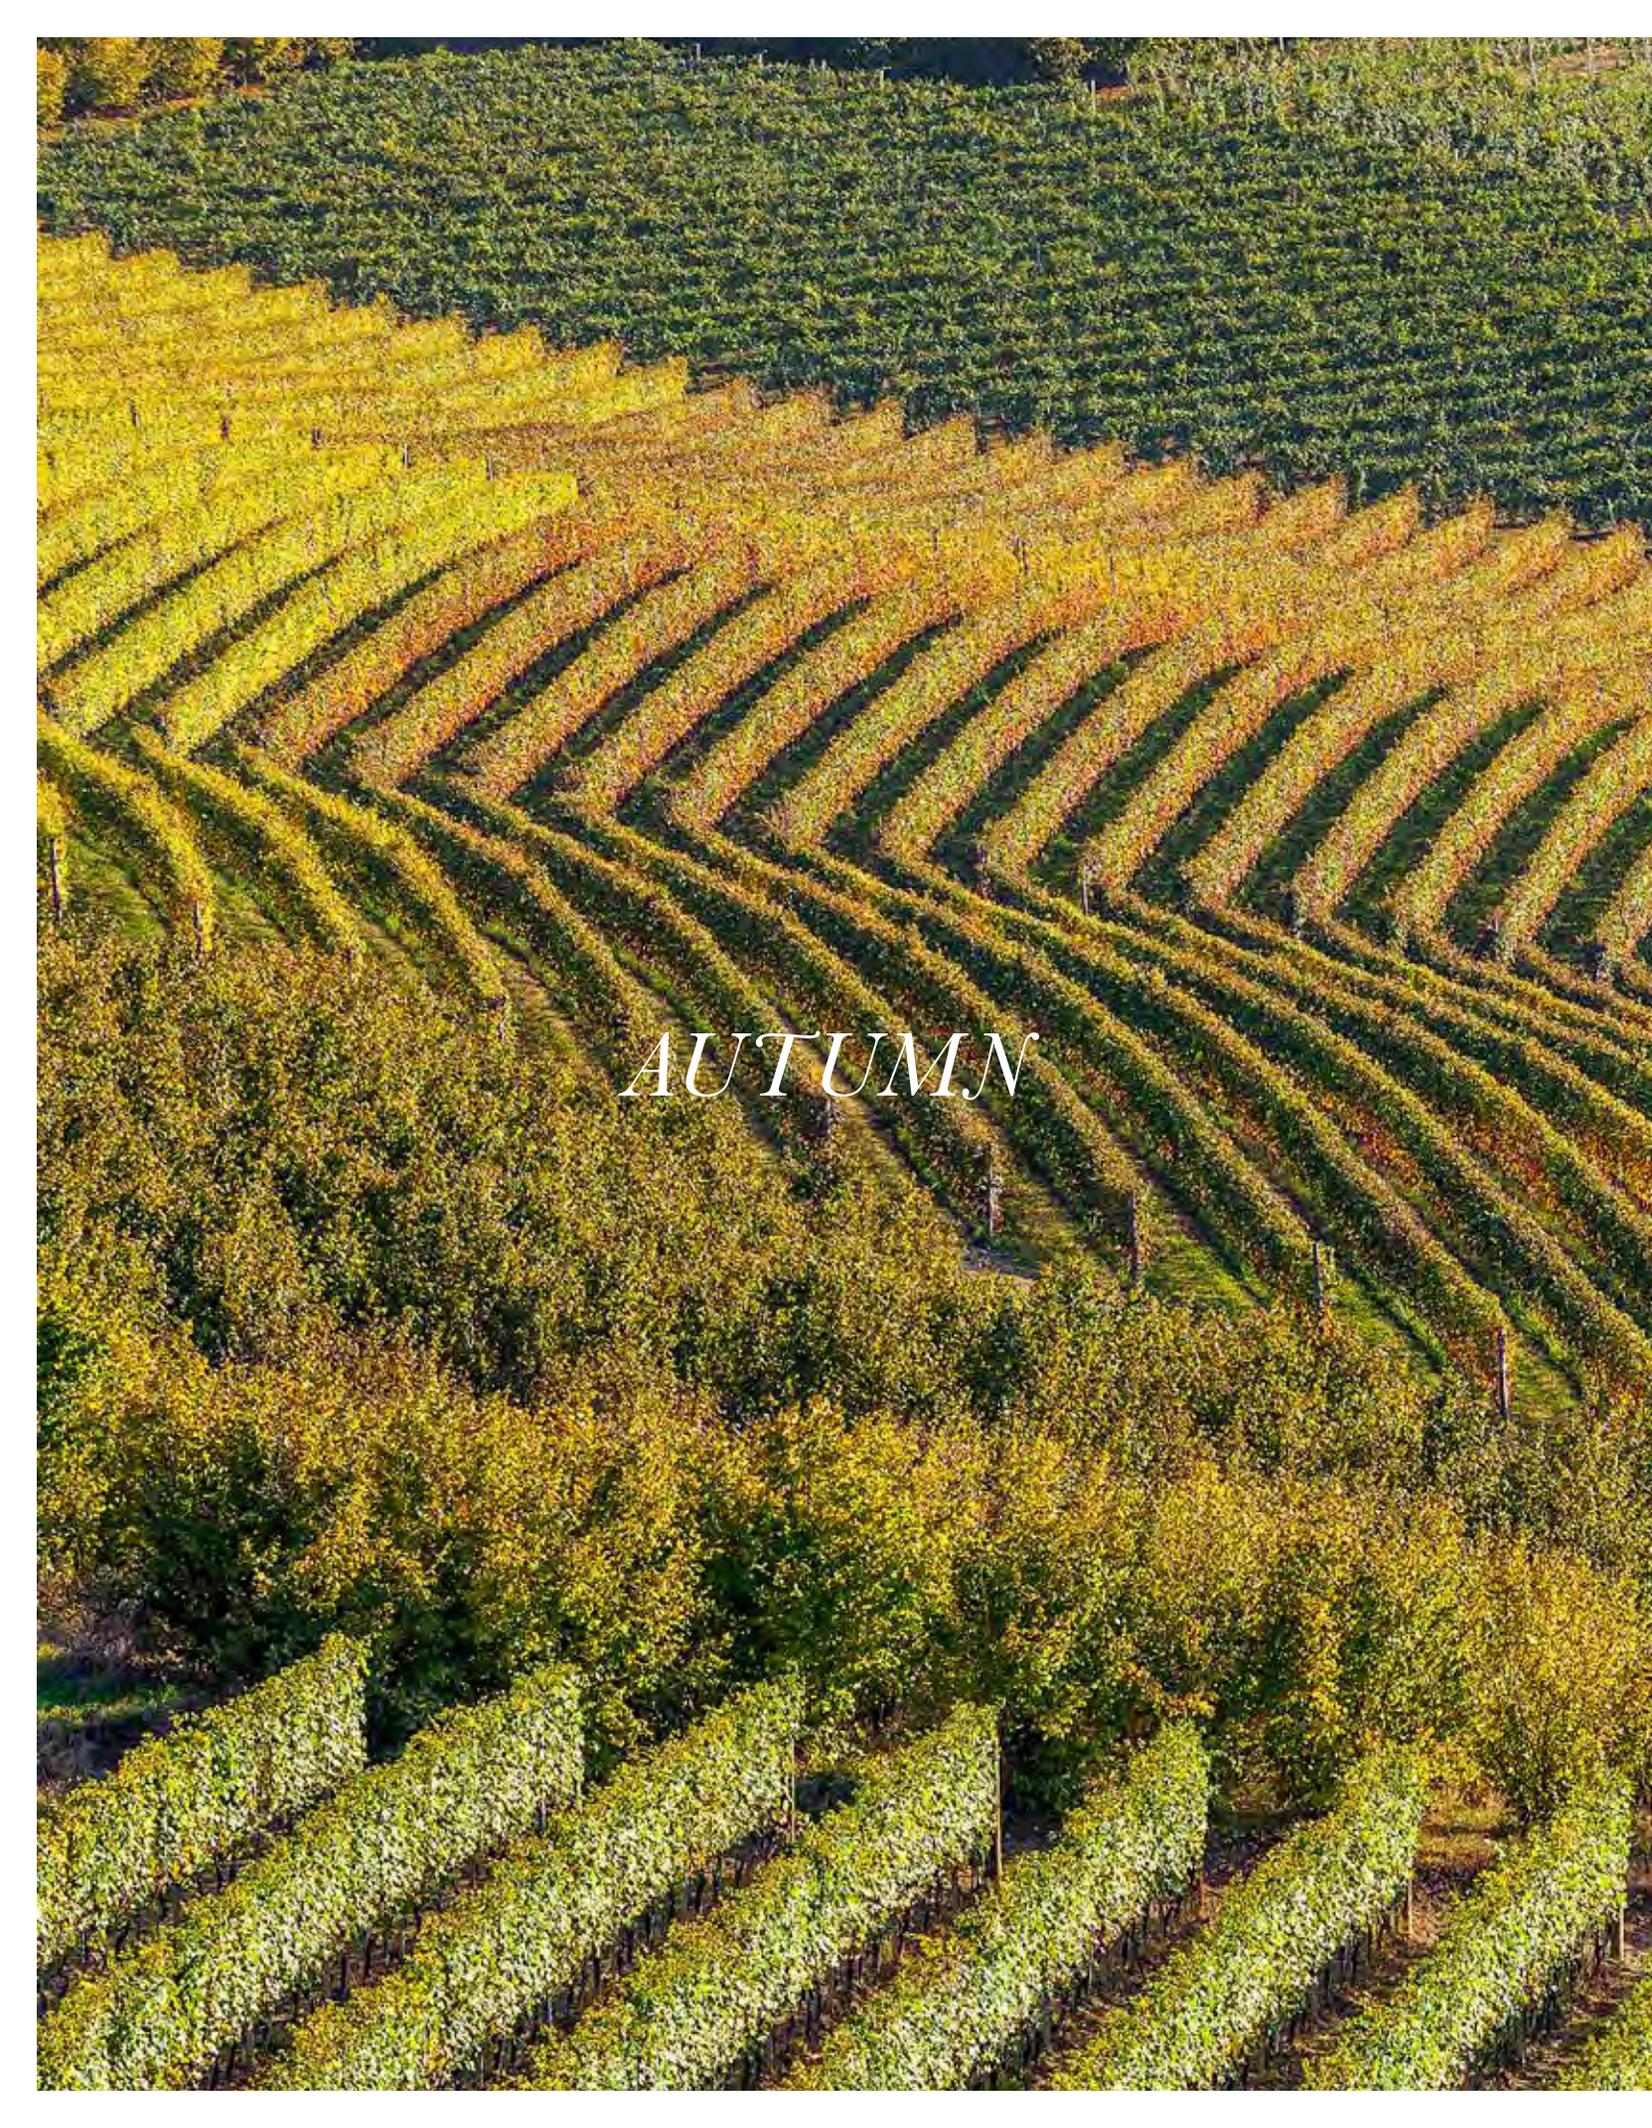

FIDENZA VILLAGE

Fidenza Village, one of the 11 Villages of “The Bicester Village Shopping Collection” by Value Retail in Europe and China, offers a new concept in shopping and hospitality, combining the finest expressions of fashion and luxury, entertainment and tourism, in the heart of the Food Valley and the Land of Verdi, just 60 minutes from Milan and Bologna. The Bicester Village Shopping Collection unifies the 11 distinctive fashion destinations across Europe and China by Value Retail and represents the story of a business founded on an innovative spirit and a simple idea: to redefine the luxury shopping experience while offering exceptional value for money. Fidenza Village welcomes its guests to the Best of Italy, to discover a land rich of heritage locations, cultural attractions and gastronomic excellences and spend a perfect day out one hour away from Milan and Bologna and half hour from Parma, City of Gastronomy Unesco and Italian Capital of Culture in 2020.

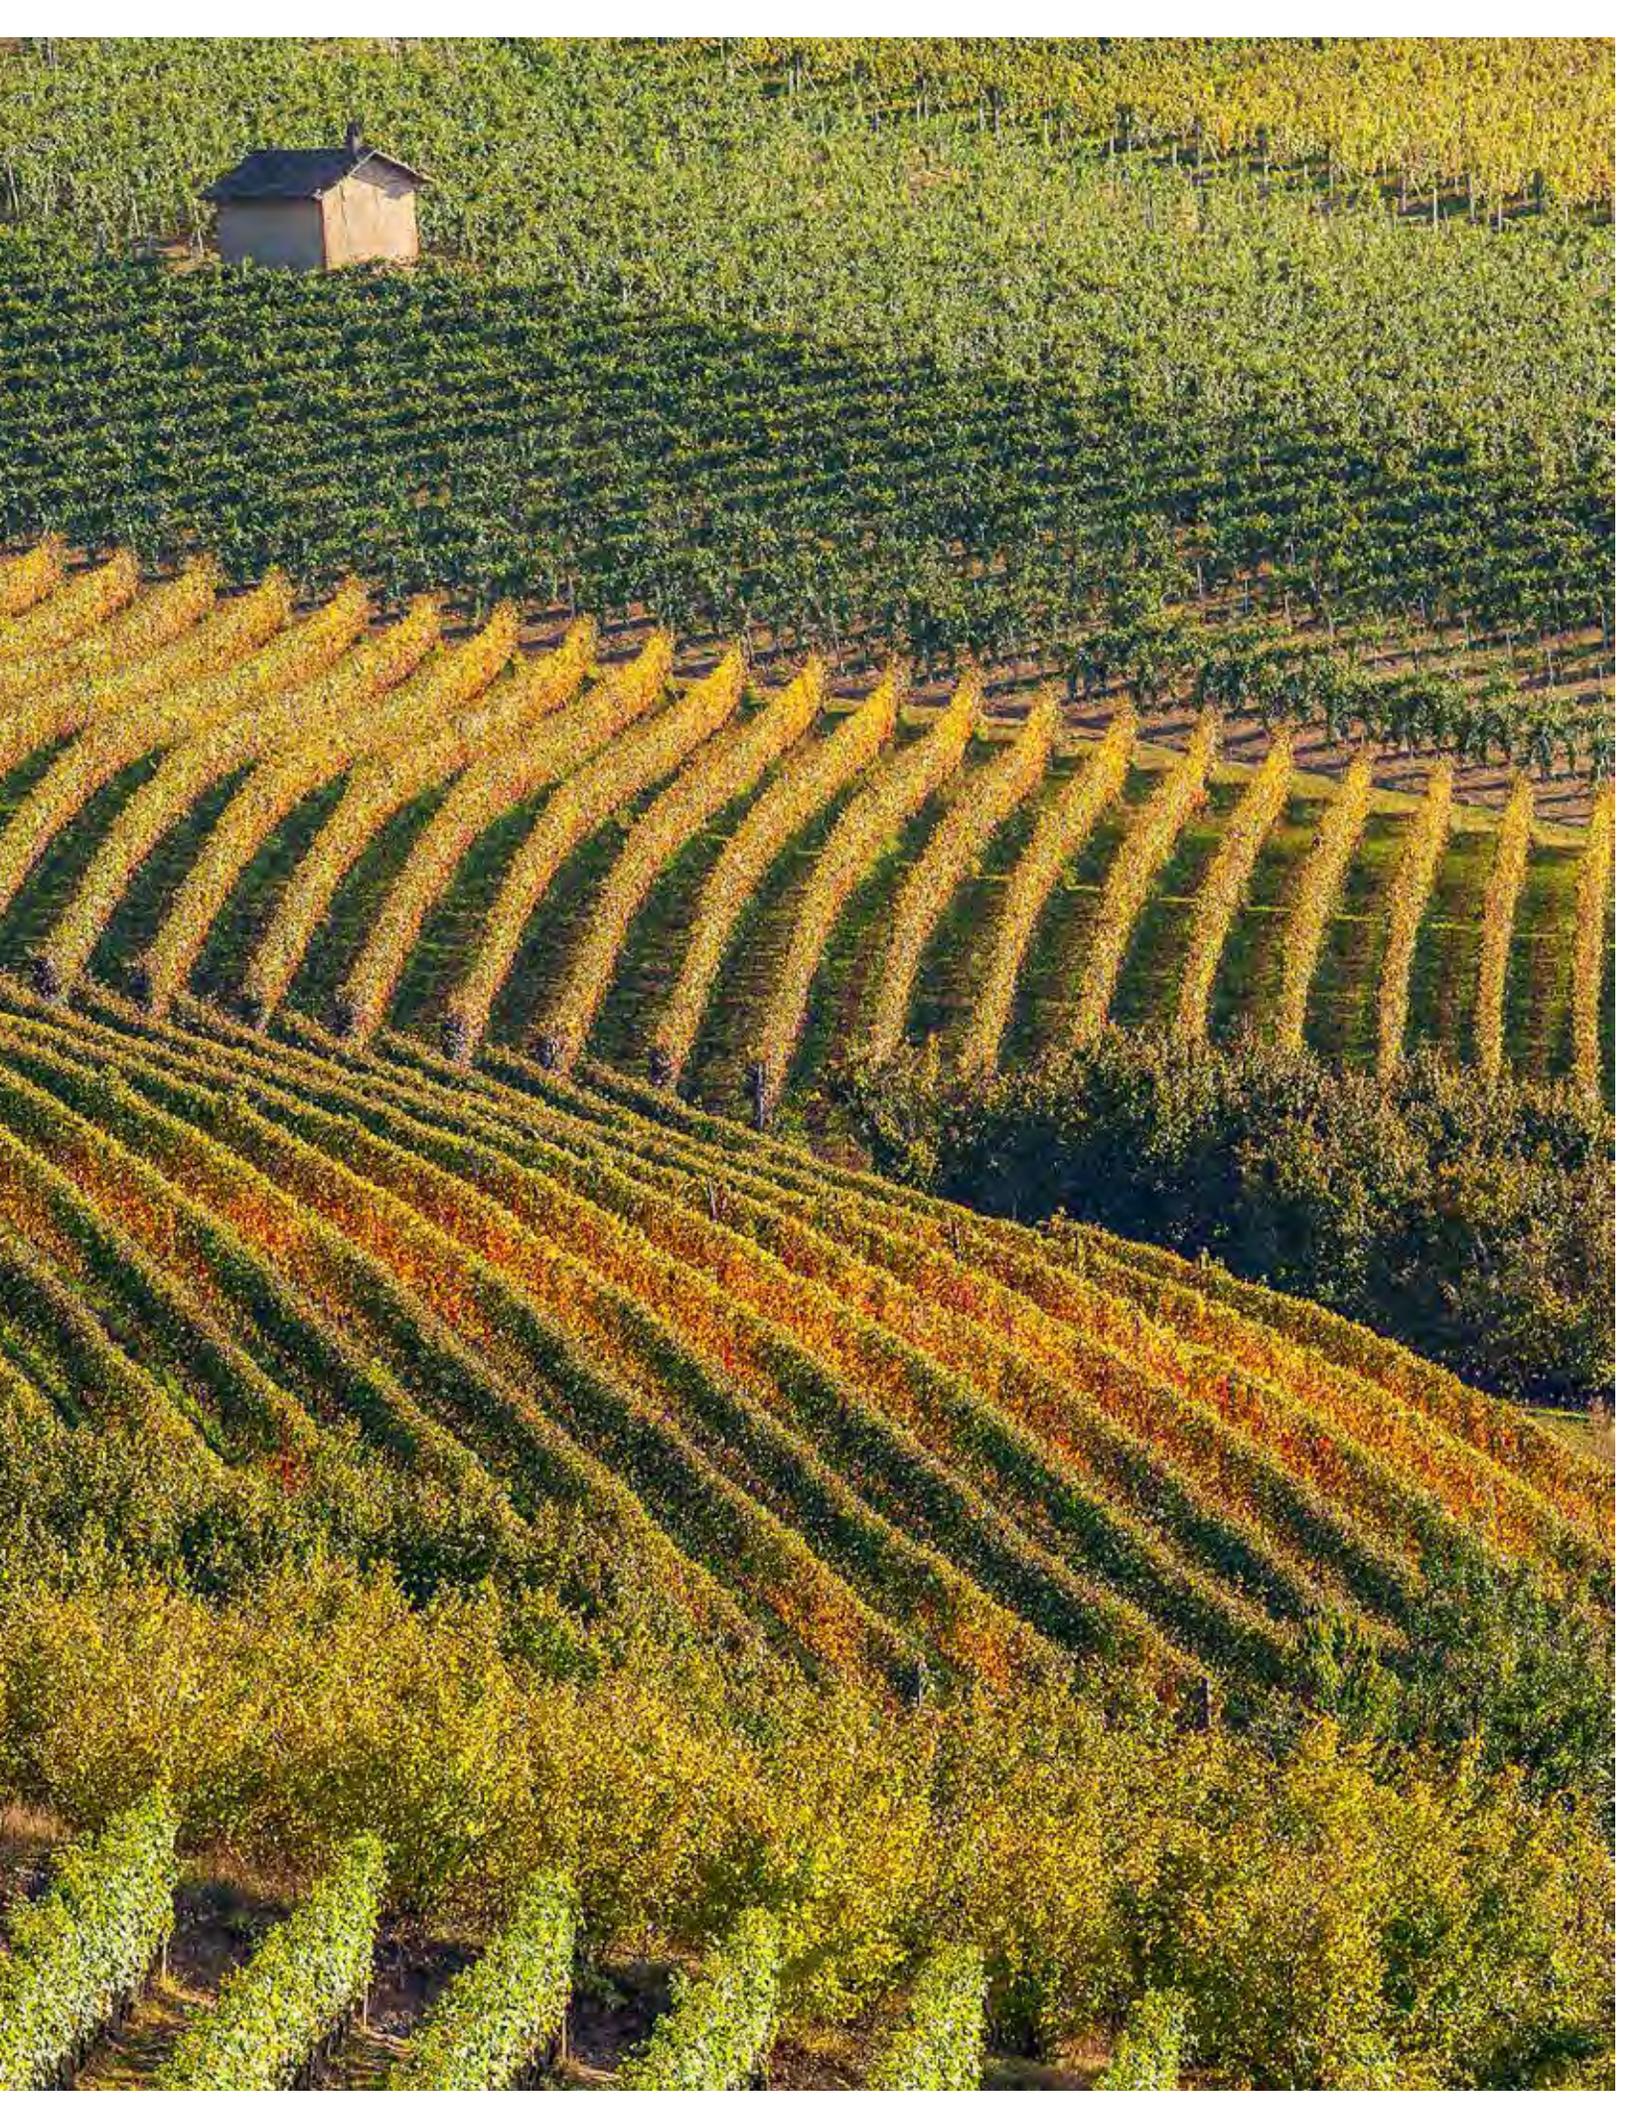

Via Federico Fellini, 1, Fidenza (Parma) ~ Airports: Milan (107 km); Bologna (110 km)

An aerial photograph of a vineyard during autumn. The rows of grapevines are arranged in a grid pattern, with the leaves showing a mix of green, yellow, and orange. The perspective is from a high angle, looking down on the rows. The word "AUTUMN" is written in a white, serif font across the center of the image.

AUTUMN

As the Italian summer fades away, the landscape is tinged with shades of gold. In the cities there is great excitement: boutiques are setting up their displays for the season, making room for jackets and boots, and the first cold calls for the benefits of a SPA treatment or a glass of good wine: it's so good that it's the right time to start learning how to make it. But in the countryside, it's time to hunt truffles: nothing is more enjoyable than following the experts and their dogs through the woods, then tasting this unique specialty next to a fireplace.

FLY & WINE

Experience an exclusive way to see the villages and hills of Tuscany: exploring the region by helicopter is unique and captivating, the only thing that can complete the privilege of putting your feet on the incomparable beauty of an ancient land. Take a flight over the Val d'Orcia and, once back on land, experience the pleasure of squeezing oil from olives and drizzling it over Tuscan bread, cooked in the village oven, and head down to the Montalcino wine cellar for a wine-tasting. Brunello, hailed as the king of wines according to Wine Spectator, is produced here. Following this, it's a simple choice between eating at the Michelin starred Silene restaurant, under Mount Amiata, or at Borgo San Felice in Castelnuovo Berardenga: a unique way of appreciating the flavours of this unforgettable region.

NOT A ONE-STOP-SHOPPING

Whether browsing among the shining boutiques of via Montenapoleone in Milan or diving into the uncountable Italian-born griffe of the Florence fashion district, a truly tailor-made shopping experience is a “must-do” while in Italy. Thanks to exclusive agreements developed with the most important fashion houses, accessing a professional defile, having a private one, or gaining individual access to jewelry shops and showroom collections, even after hours, can be made possible: the pleasure of shopping in a welcoming atmosphere reserved just for you, with highly qualified personnel ready to advise and assist. What a feeling to be among the public during the Milan Fashion Week, having the special privilege of being part of a real catwalk event, to admire the most renowned top models alongside world popular celebrities!

TRUFFLE PIGS OR TRUFFLE DOGS ?

A fungus that grows under the ground, on the roots of oak trees or other particular trees: truffles only grow in certain conditions, making them a highly valuable, true object of desire. Be it the unrivalled white truffle of Alba or the black truffle of Norcia, or other famous regions, Italy is paradise for those that love the inebriating aroma that rises from the plate, as well as the desire to work alongside the truffle hunters and their invaluable dogs. An autumnal weekend in the Langhe, Piedmont, at the residence of an author nestled amongst the oldest vineyards in Italy, becomes even more exclusive with a hunt for these natural jewels and the delight of tasting them cooked by a Michelin starred chef.

WINE-MAKING BASICS: HARVESTING

Italy is the top exporter of wine in the world, thus there is an abundance of choices when it comes to deciding where to become a vine grower for the weekend. From Barolo in Piedmont to Chianti in Tuscany, from the Cinque Terre to the hills of Prosecco near Venice, sharing the joy of collecting grapes and taking part in the delicate crushing in wine cellars, where tourists can only visit for a wine tasting, is an experience that has convinced more than one to buy a small holding and become a vine grower - not just for the day. There is nothing better than returning, straight after the grape harvest, to the attention and comfort of a retreat in the surrounding countryside, in the vibrantly colourful period that precedes autumn.

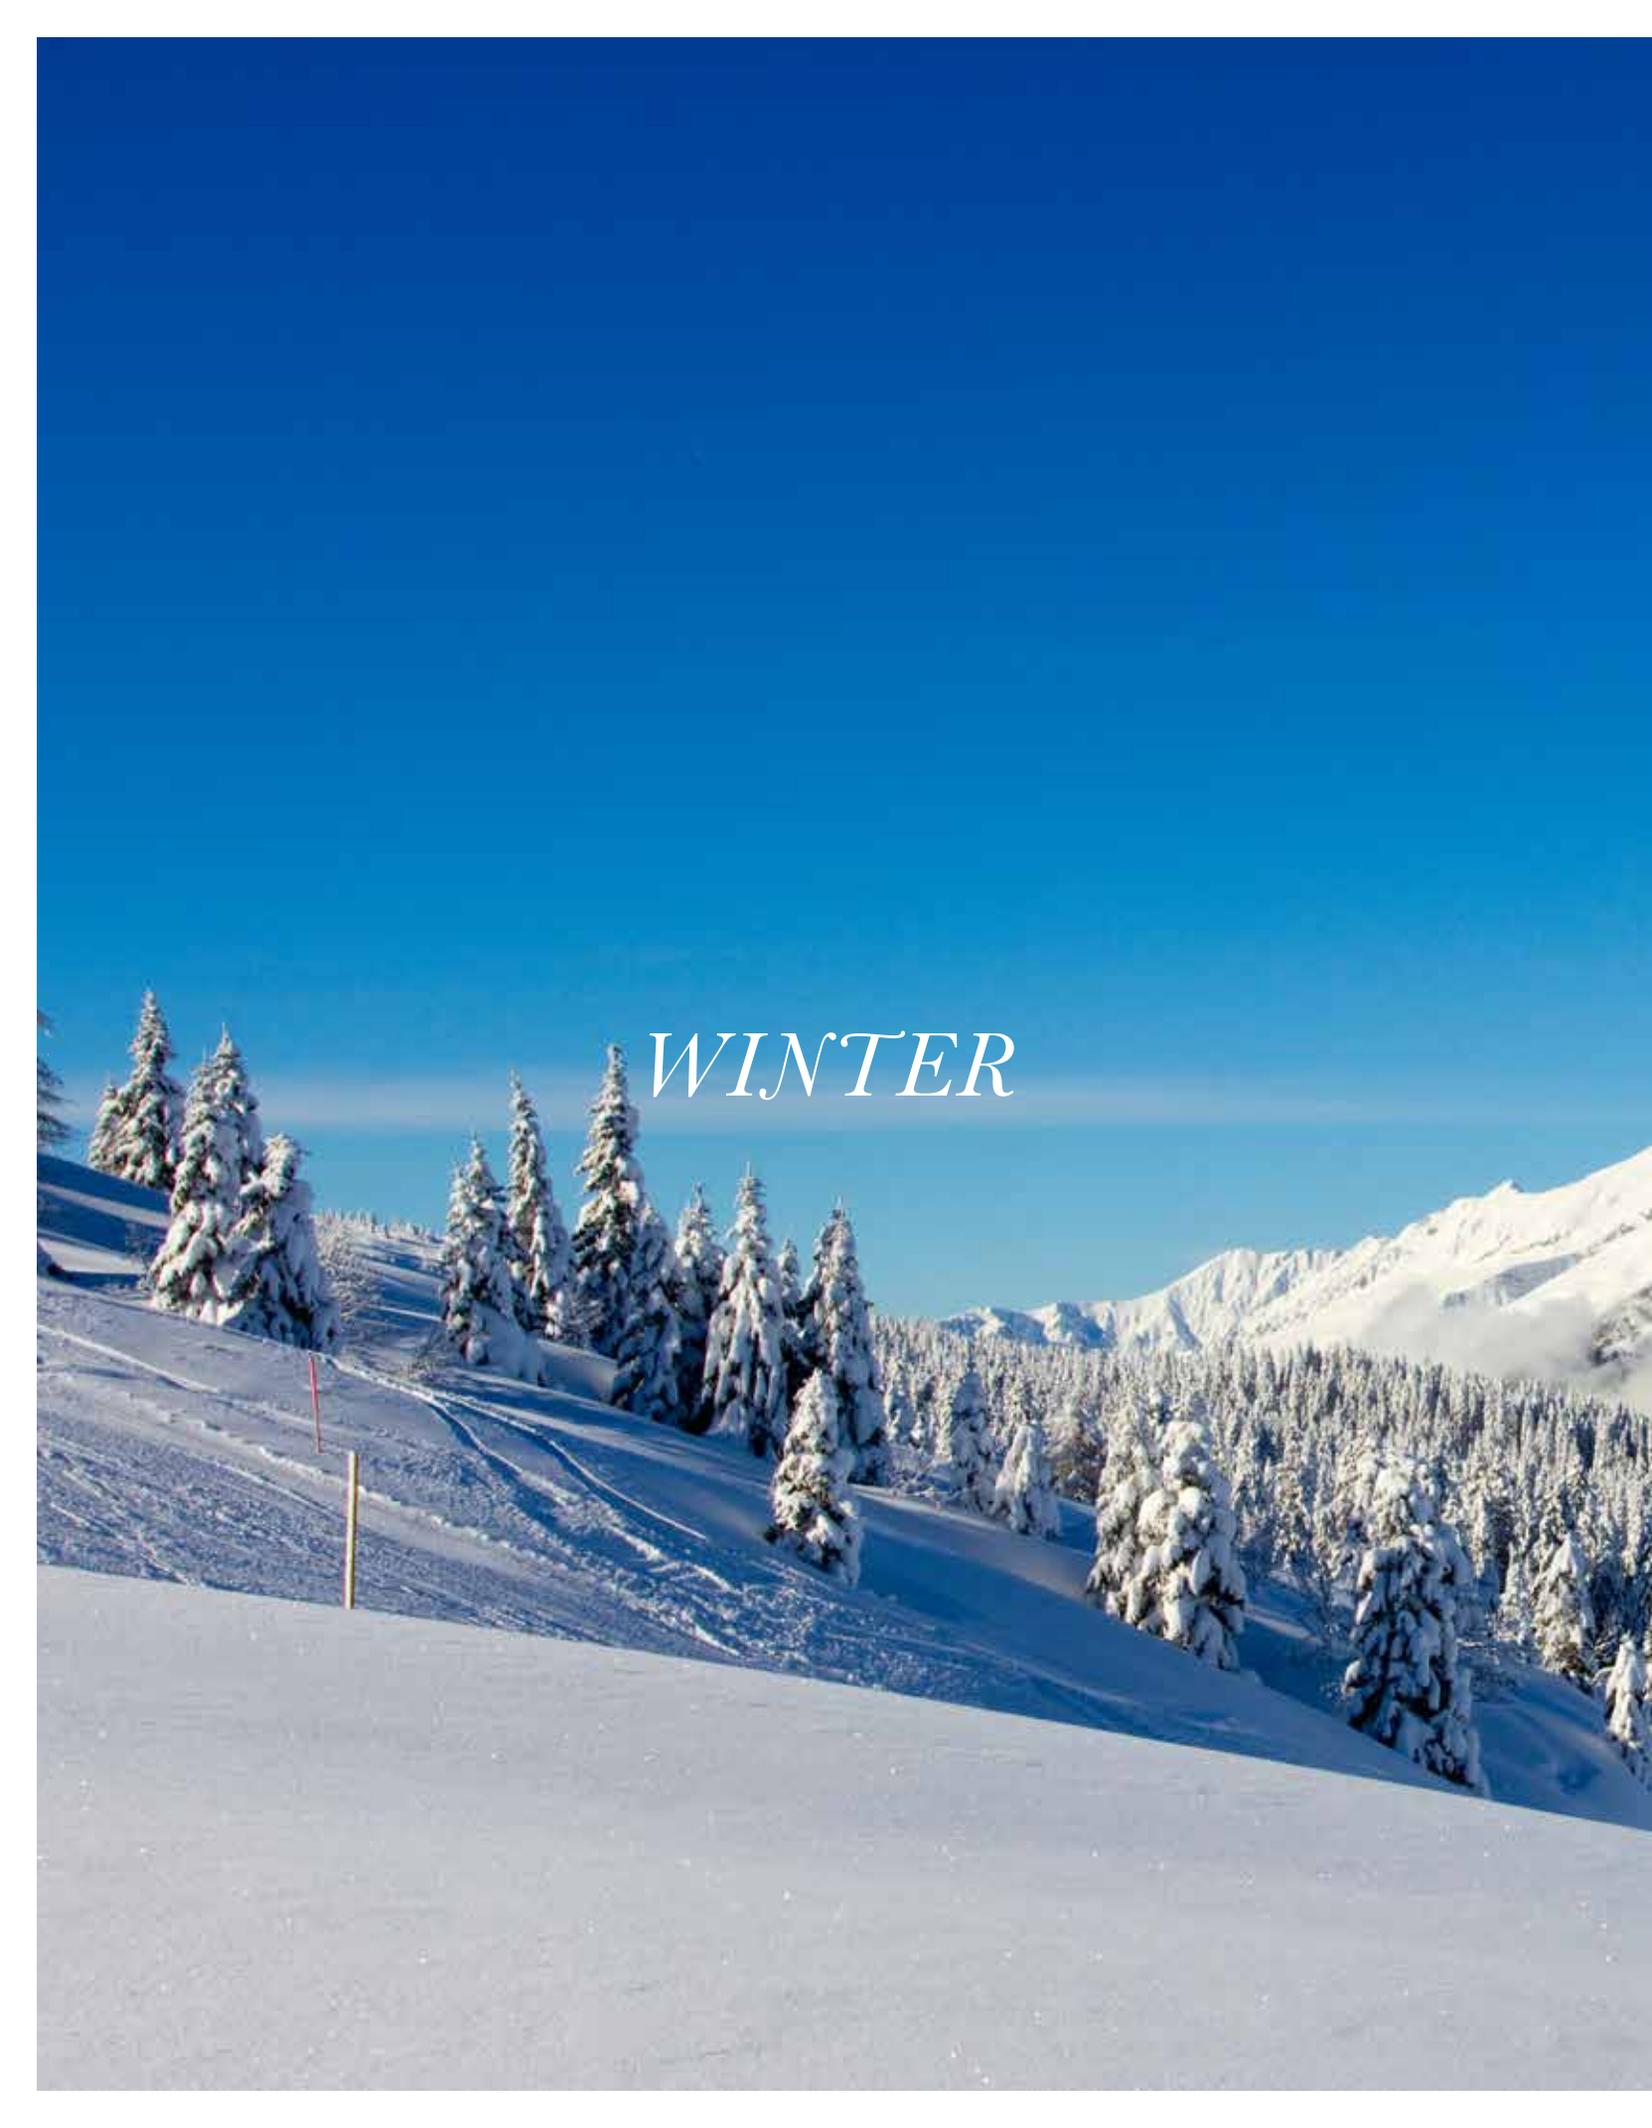

THE MALL FIRENZE

The Mall Firenze combines the unique Tuscan landscape, the finest high-end fashion brands, all-round style, luxury tailor-made services and an exceptional dining experience in order to offer you a unique combination of fashion, beautiful surroundings and elegance. A special, unique place, where visitors can enjoy fashion at great prices without forgoing the finest quality. The mall is nestled in the heart of the Tuscan hills, only 30 minutes from Florence. 40 brands on sale all-year-round at great prices, items of desire and some of the most iconic collections – men's, women's and kids' clothing – along with footwear, accessories, jewellery and fragrances.

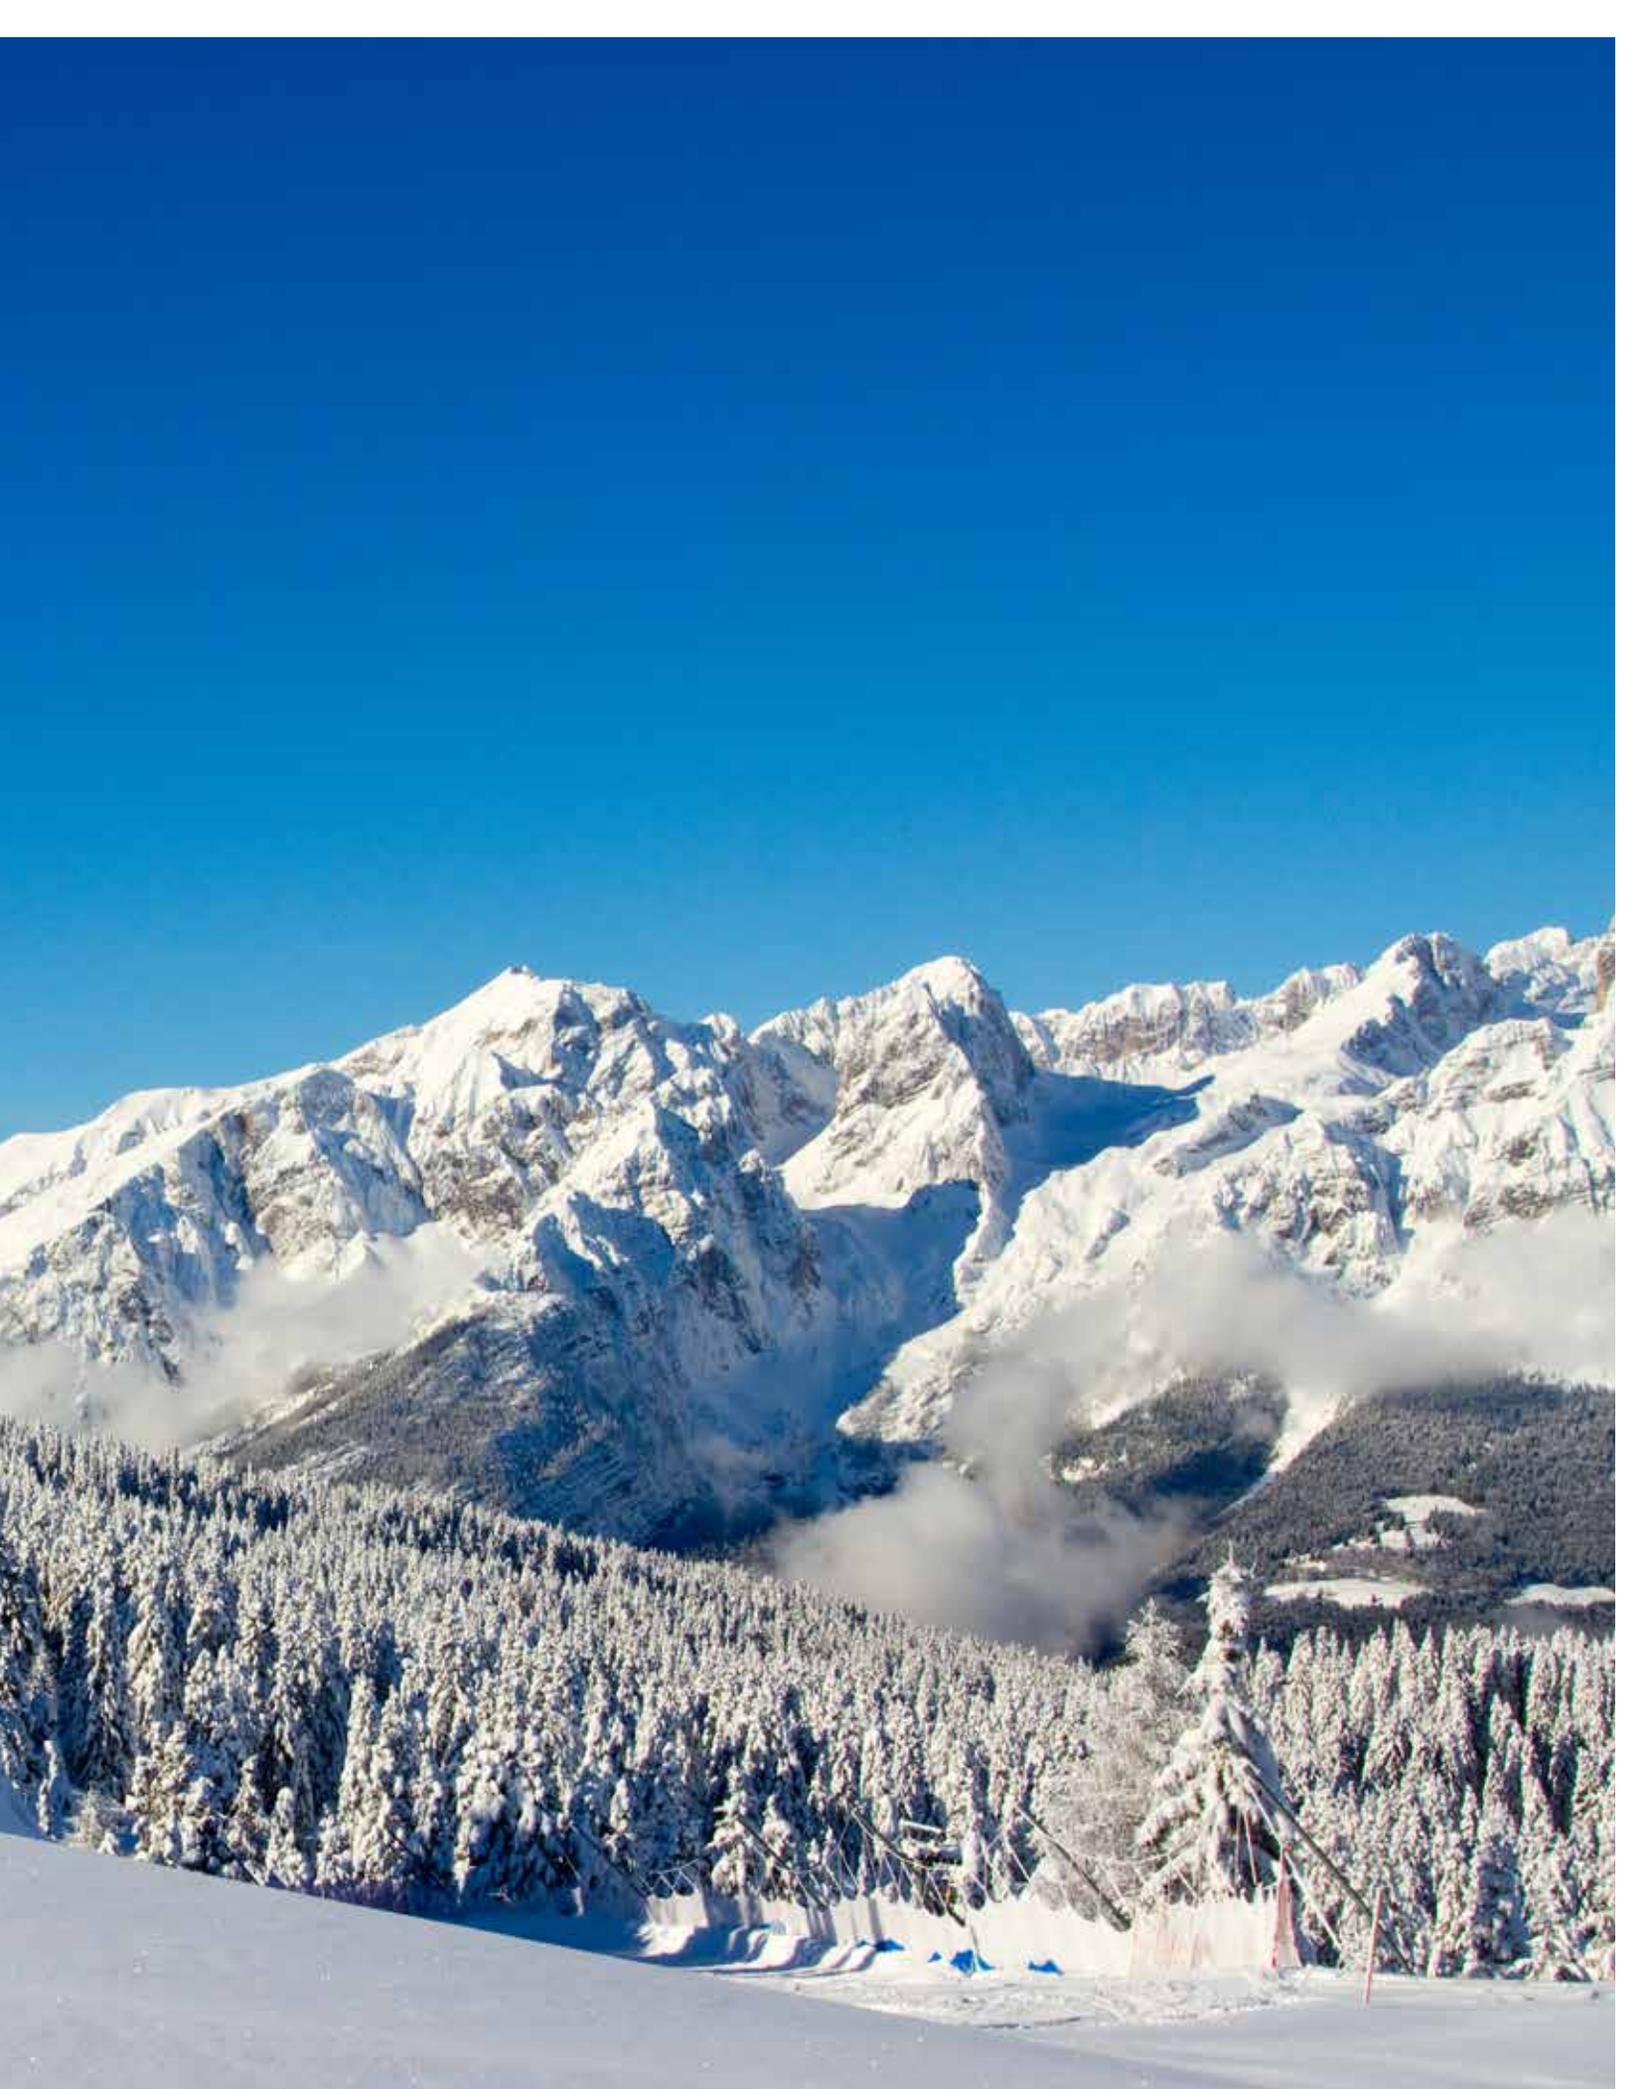

Via Europa, 8, Leccio - Reggello (Florence) ~ Airports: Florence (29,4 km); Pisa (116 km)

WINTER

The snowy Alps attract ski and snowboard enthusiasts, and warm chalets pamper people who need to leave behind the unrest of the city, which in the winter comes to full throttle. La Scala opera season opens in Milan, where residents get ready for Christmas shopping and the next design week, just a few weeks before Carnival, in Venice, suggests it's about time to choose your own mask. And while celebrating Saint Valentine's day, perhaps having a romantic dinner right in the Ponte Vecchio, why not savour an individual cooking class, another experience to cherish forever.

ABOVE ALL, A WHITE SAFARI

A safari with no lions and no zebras, and certainly no sand; and as white as the snow that will mark the horizon together with the blue of the sky. Combining some of the most fantastic skiing in the world, with fine dining on incredible Italian cuisine. Moving across the Dolomites from valley to valley and “hut-to-hut” with skis, and being welcomed each day in a warm “rifugio” away from the crowds of the villages, getting ready for next day slopes of Cortina or Alta Badia, of Valgardena or the Marmolada glacier: 12 valleys with 1.200 km (750 miles!) of well-prepared pistes, the most varied way to enjoy the Alps, in the most comfortable manner.

WHICH MASK SUITS YOU BEST IN VENICE?

The most glamorous Carnival in the world, the luxury answer to Rio de Janeiro: for one week, when Venice puts on the mask, the alleys along the lagoon become an open-air theatre in preparation for the evening festivities in the most beautiful palaces in the city, such as Ca' Vendramin, the Palazzo Pisani Moretta and the Teatro La Fenice. To take part in one of these VIP-only events a period costume is required, created by Venetian tailors, with a fitting and delivery service at your hotel along with tickets to the ball; which will be easy to reach with a private transfer along the canal that brings you there, from any of the most extraordinary 5-star locations in the world.

TEATRO ALLA SCALA: MUSIC AND GLAMOUR

The most glamorous opera theatre in the homeland of the greatest composers of all time: Verdi, Donizetti, Puccini. Almost 250 years of music history that even today give chills to the tenors, orchestras and selected audiences that attend operas, ballets and concerts in the Milanese opera season. A privilege that could not have been imagined when, in 1778, a new theatre was built on the site of the Santa Maria della Scala church, and that remains unchanged for its inauguration on the 7 December, the event of the year for Italian aristocracy, and in all the exclusive follow-on representations taking place in the cultural hall in central Milan.

REAL ALPINE HELI-SKIING

There must be a reason why skiing, although pioneered in Scandinavia, is called “alpine”: the best way to discover it is indeed to see the Alps from above and feel them under your skis. Unlike its bordering countries, each counting on a respectable chunk of this unbelievable chain of mountains, Italy is the only one that enjoys the full length of the Alps, and heli-skiing is the most spectacular way to get the most out of it. Enjoying unparalleled views of the majestic Dolomites from above, with the chance of helicopter transfers each day to a different peak. Travelling from valley to valley, experiencing different languages, cultures, and cuisines – Italian, Austrian, Ladin, French or Swiss – that make these regions so unique.

And of course, indulging in luxury accommodations, the finest of the Alps.

YOU CAN CALL IT A COOKING CLASS

Not just a simple cooking class but a true local experience, perhaps with a brief pause at the port to look for the freshest of fish, before a lesson on location, literally with your hands in the “pasta” - the Italian for dough.

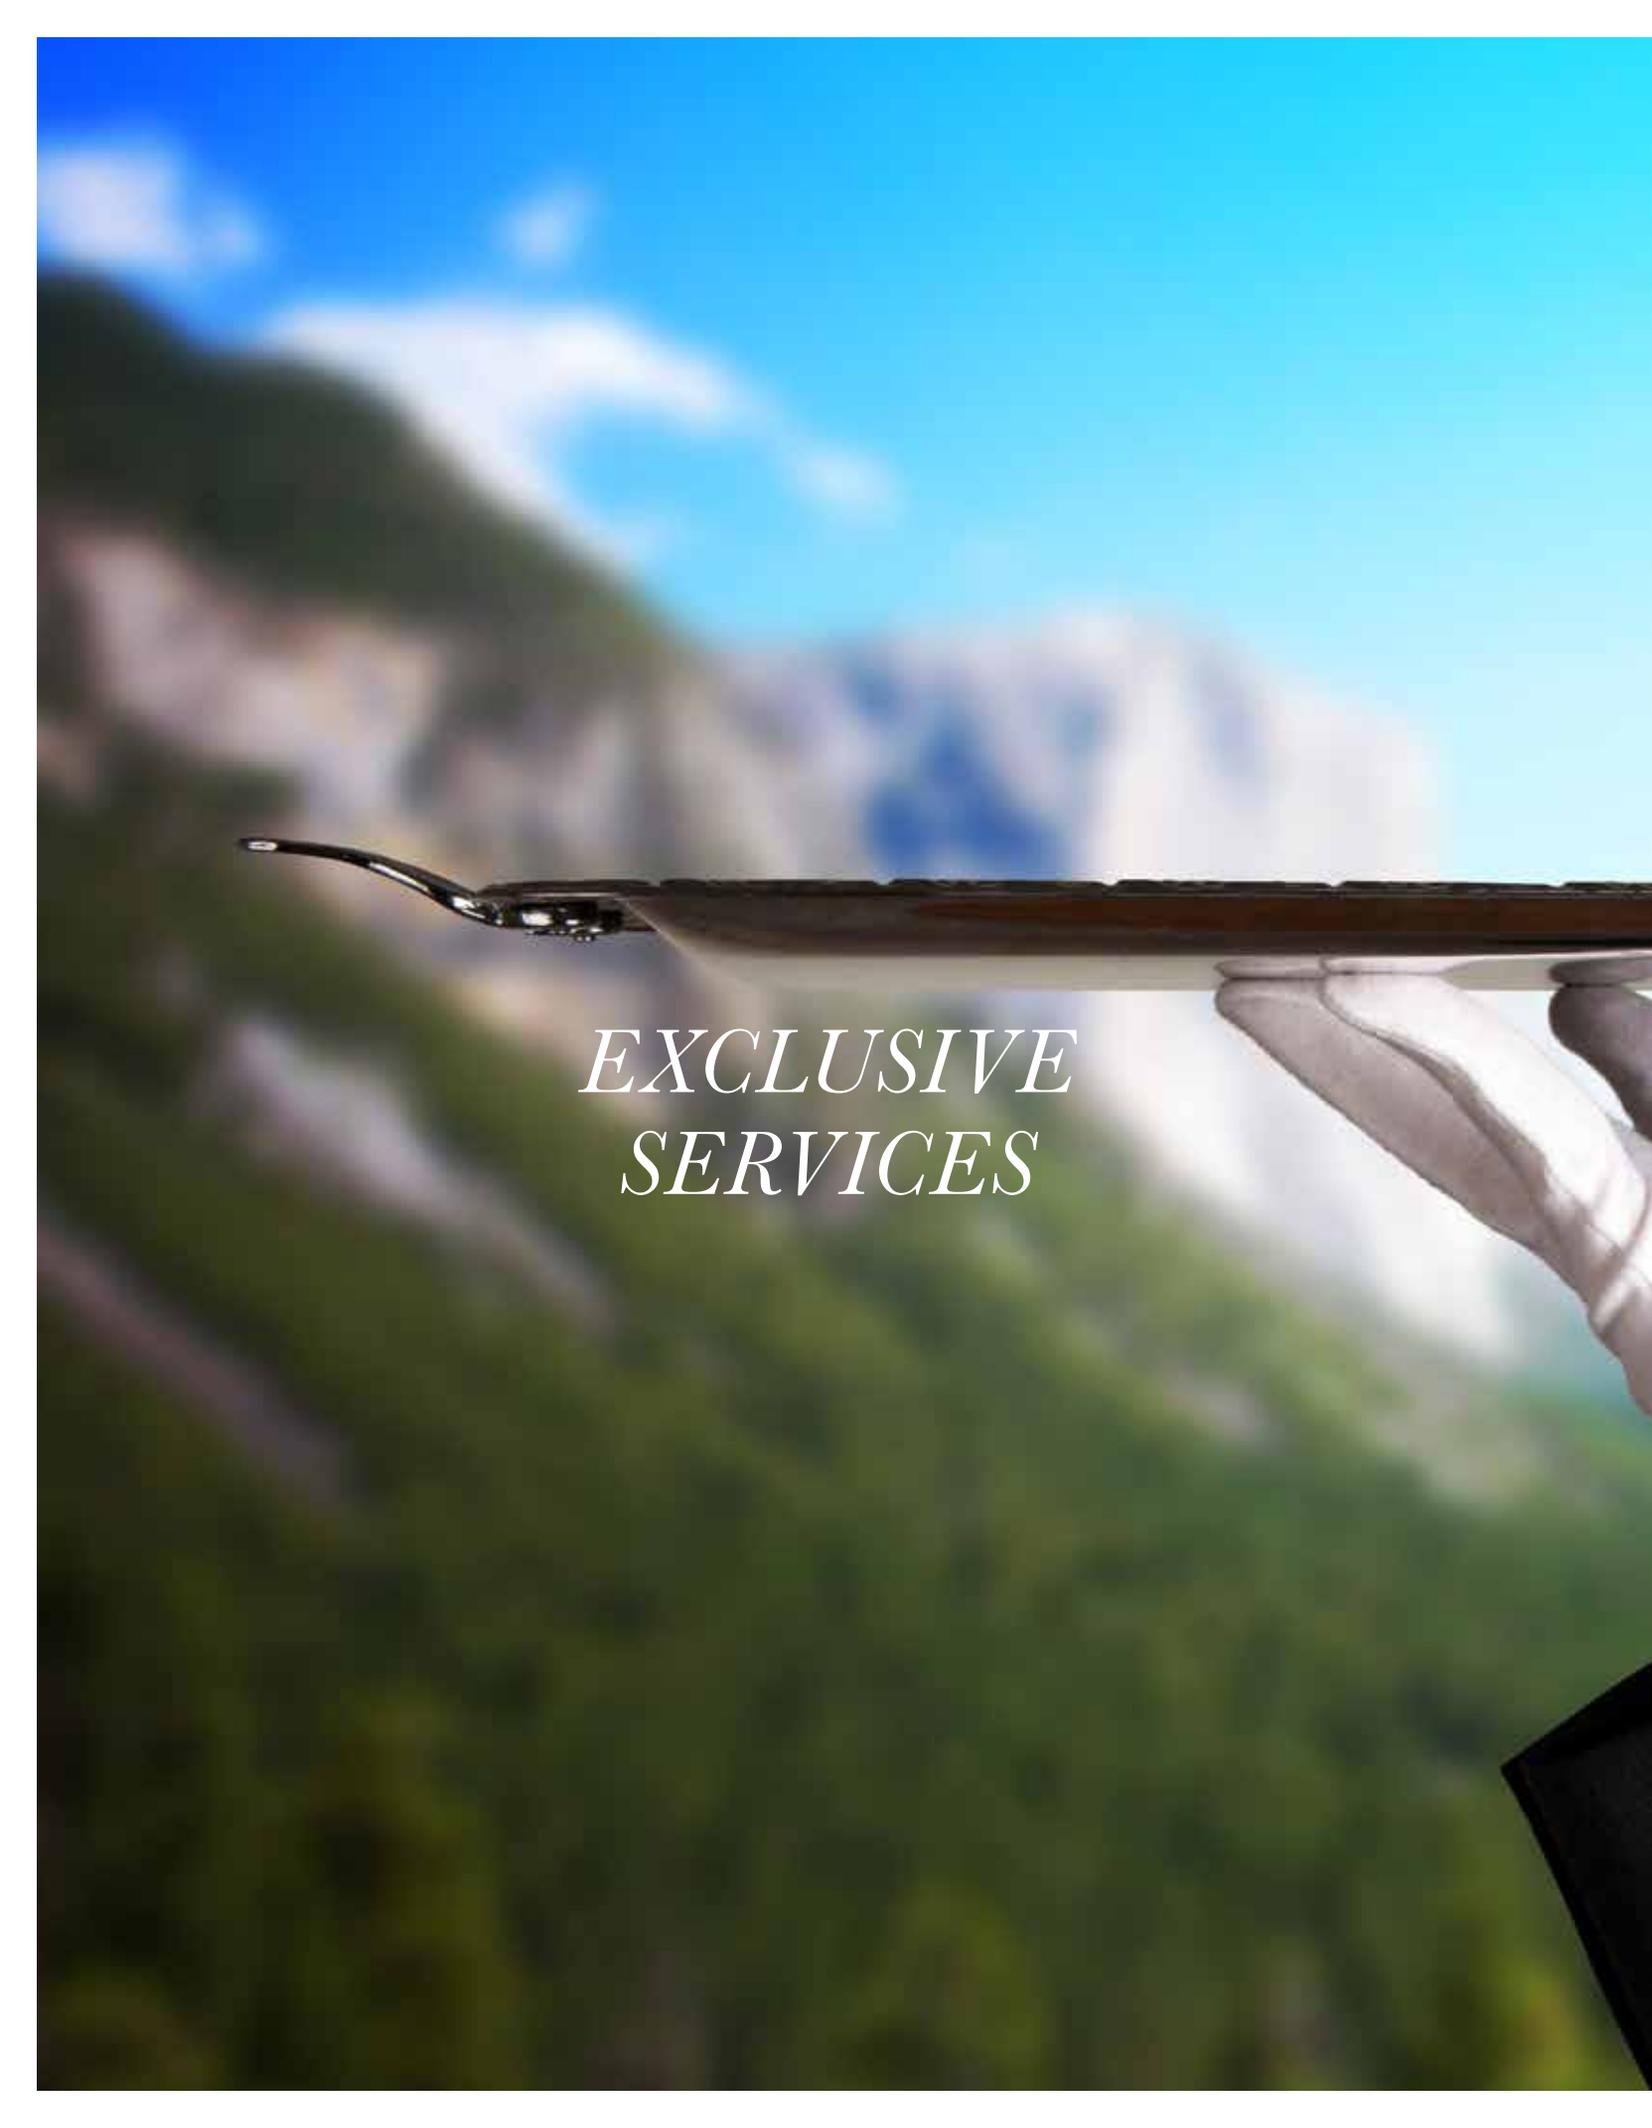

An immersion into a centuries-old culinary culture, preparing traditional regional dishes together with a real chef in a large Pugliese farm, or cooking, with a view over the canals of Venice, accompanied by the class of a real countess. And, maybe, enjoy all the relaxation and charm of a romantic private table for two, or a memorable birthday dinner, in an exclusive setting above one of the jewellers of the Ponte Vecchio in Florence, discovering stories from the renaissance period.

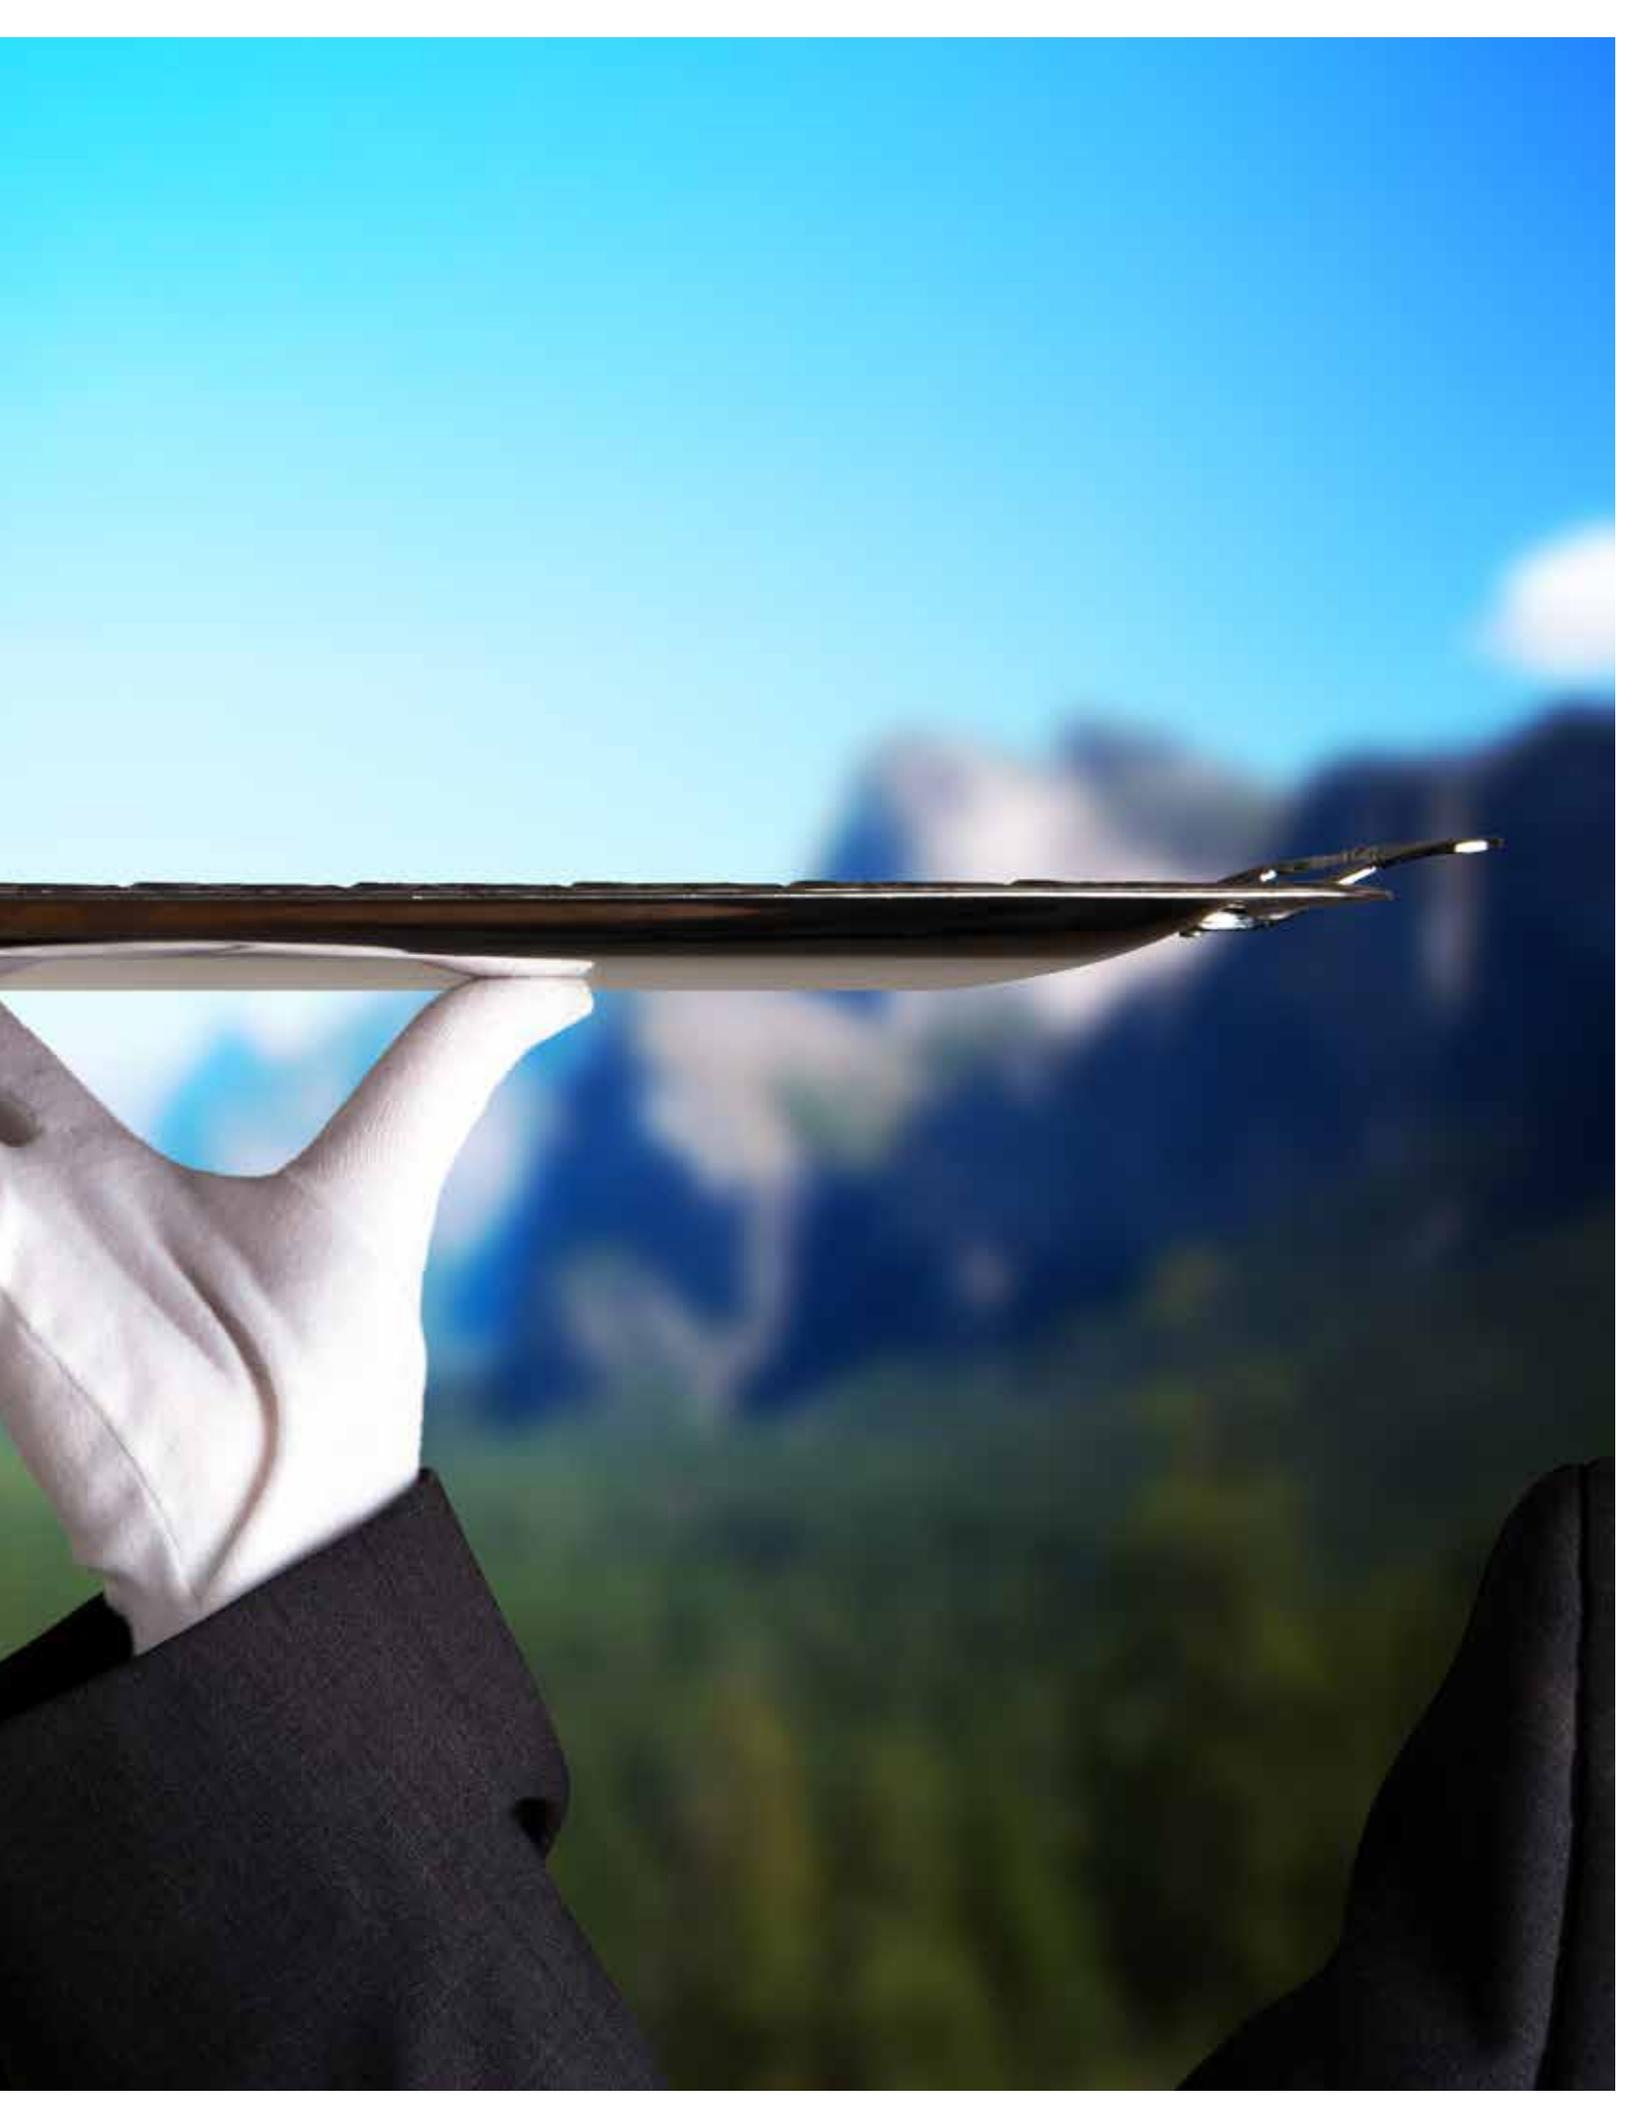

UNIQUE AND ROMANTIC EVENTS

Any celebration, felt deeply, is an act of love. So why not celebrate International Women's Day and Valentine's Day, as well as an anniversary and obviously a birthday, and make it even more special, thanks to the suggestion of just one of the many romantic places that Italy has to offer? A dinner for two in a period palace in Verona, where we imagine Romeo and Juliet, or a private gondola with a violinist on board waiting at the exit of the Fenice, to glide you along the water to the Riva degli Schiavoni hotel in Venice. Anything is possible. A remarkable surprise promises a remarkable evening! Above all, enjoy the things that you don't see, like the discretion of those who are there to help make the magic of an unforgettable moment happen.

A close-up, horizontal view of a fountain pen nib, likely a Montblaster Meisterstück, positioned in the center of the frame. The nib is dark and highly reflective, with a fine, curved tip. The background is a soft-focus landscape of a mountain valley with green hills and a blue sky with light clouds. The text "EXCLUSIVE SERVICES" is overlaid in a white, elegant serif font, centered over the nib and the background.

EXCLUSIVE SERVICES

LIFE BEGINS WITH A PRIVATE TRANSFER

Whether or not you have planned a personal welcome and access to a VIP lounge to freshen up - arriving with a comfortable regular flight or in a private jet - the transfer from the airport to your destination is always the first step for offering a high-quality service, which includes baggage management along with any potential customs assistance and the necessary fast track. Transport selection - in the newest S-Class and luxury water-taxis - amounts to the attentive guide and to the discretion of the drivers to start off your perfect Italian holiday in the most welcoming way... and so may it continue! With the same services at your disposal, up to the assistance upon departure, which will be just as perfect.

YOUR GUARDIAN ANGELS

Almost no one, without a guide, can truly appreciate the results of the fusion of such diverse but complementary elements of art, landscapes, architecture, cooking and lifestyle. Immerse yourself in the imperial splendour of Ancient Rome; understand what Florence was like for the Renaissance artists; feel empathy in the conclave visiting the Sistine Chapel with a dedicated vaticanologist; and understand the emotions of a Neapolitan chef who uses expertise and tradition as ingredients for your dishes... you must rely on a guide that lives up to the expectations of their guests. Naturally, in your own mother tongue, supported by perfectly bilingual, vetted interpreters and, if necessary, highly-trained privacy or personal security professionals.

A MORE PRIVATE STAY

How can you enjoy the service of a 5-star hotel and the privacy of a private residence? Choose a fantastic villa or ancient castle equipped with staff for the perfect relaxing holiday, on your own time, without having to share your space: a chef to prepare Italian cuisine, among other culinary delights, an on-call chauffeur or a car for you to drive personally, staff with the highest levels of discretion to take care of the house and garden, a specialised personal trainer... as well as a concierge service for your every need. Just like a hotel, without having to stay in a hotel, supervising your tranquillity or making sure that your children don't disturb others; naturally surrounded by the hills of the Val d'Orcia in Tuscany, or by the majesty of the white marble caves of Carrara above Forte dei Marmi; or maybe with a boat moored on a jetty of Lake Como, or in a pure white bay in Sardinia.

TAKE-OFF AND LANDING

For the country with the largest number of UNESCO World Heritage Sites in the world, Italy is a relatively small country, which allows you to see a large amount in a short time, as committed guests or those looking to enjoy many experiences in a short time soon realise. A helicopter is definitely the mode of transport that allows you to take advantage of this unique characteristic: you could go shopping in Milan during a holiday in Cortina d'Ampezzo, travel with practicality from Lake Como to Portofino, or stay an extra day to enjoy the Faraglioni and return to Rome on a comfortable flight directly from Capri - obviously in total safety and comfort without any compromise for traffic.

WALKING DOWN AN ITALIAN AISLE

The ideal day in the country of dreams is a wedding in Italy, the land of Love & Romance – Amore! Starting the wedding ceremony in an ancient church, set along the spectacular Amalfi coast or among the mild hills of Tuscany, and reaching the reception through the alleys of an enchanting town steeped in history, romance and art. Relying on expert professionals to deal with the best providers, for each of the exclusive moments that will mark the most memorable day that any bride can imagine, while amazed life-time friends enjoy the spotless organisation of an unforgettable event.

A VERY SPECIAL GET-TOGETHER

Whether the occasion is a business event or a one-off alumni reunion, a large family homecoming or a special celebration, larger groups love getting together at unique locations. Italy offers more than that to justify the journey: will they love the memorable party more, or the leisure opportunity offered by the surroundings? The private reception at the Science Museum of Milan, where guests enjoy superb Italian finger-food catering alongside Leonardo da Vinci's machines, or the hotel on Lake Como with the choice between the Riva speedboat or the seaplane, both moored at the pier? And will the orchestra of the Teatro La Fenice in Venice, turned private for one evening to replace the stall seating with formal dinner tables, be more or less unforgettable than getting to the hotel by gondola on the canal?
