Who having been to Italy once hasn't fallen in love with it? It's always the perfect holiday choice: the food, the fashion, the culture and, the off the beaten track places. Hidden jewels, picture perfect and not harassed by crowds.

Unique Retreats is more than a small collection of 5 luxury properties and a DMC is a collection of experiences in stunning Italian locations, unique and undiscovered gems not known to public. It's Italy off the beaten track.

An adventurous hiking vacation in the Dolomites, the pink mountains, where, in summer, a challenging “via ferrata” is the signature experience. A perfect day on the snow with 860 miles of ski runs all connected Rosa Alpina offers the perfect place where to stay, a place where food is a serious business and a dinner at three-Michelin star St. Hubertus is to write home about. Understated contemporary mountain style

Bolzano is a crossroad of two different cultures, the last Italian city before reaching the Austrian border, the gateway to the Dolomites. A city with an Austrian look and at the same time it has an Italian lifestyle.

Castel Hoertenberg is a Renaissance castle in the center of the city. A 1500 building with a contemporary decor throughout the castle halls and rooms, a thoughtful blend of history and modern design

The prosecco hills have just become part of the Unesco World Heritage Site and Villa Cipriani is in the heart of it.

Not just wine, though always a good excuse, but history and architecture with Palladian villas all around and the famous bridge in Bassano del Grappa

An iconic property from Italy's "dolce vita" times a perfect base to explore some of the most amazing Venetian towns unknown to mass tourism

Cinque Terre and its pastel-color-houses are on everyone's bucket list but, have you ever considered Portovenere? It's not only the gateway to Cinque Terre it's the place from where to explore the Gulf of Poets and the hiking trails of the island of Palmaria

Grand Hotel Portovenere, a monastery in 1600, with its unique location and gorgeous views dominates the area.

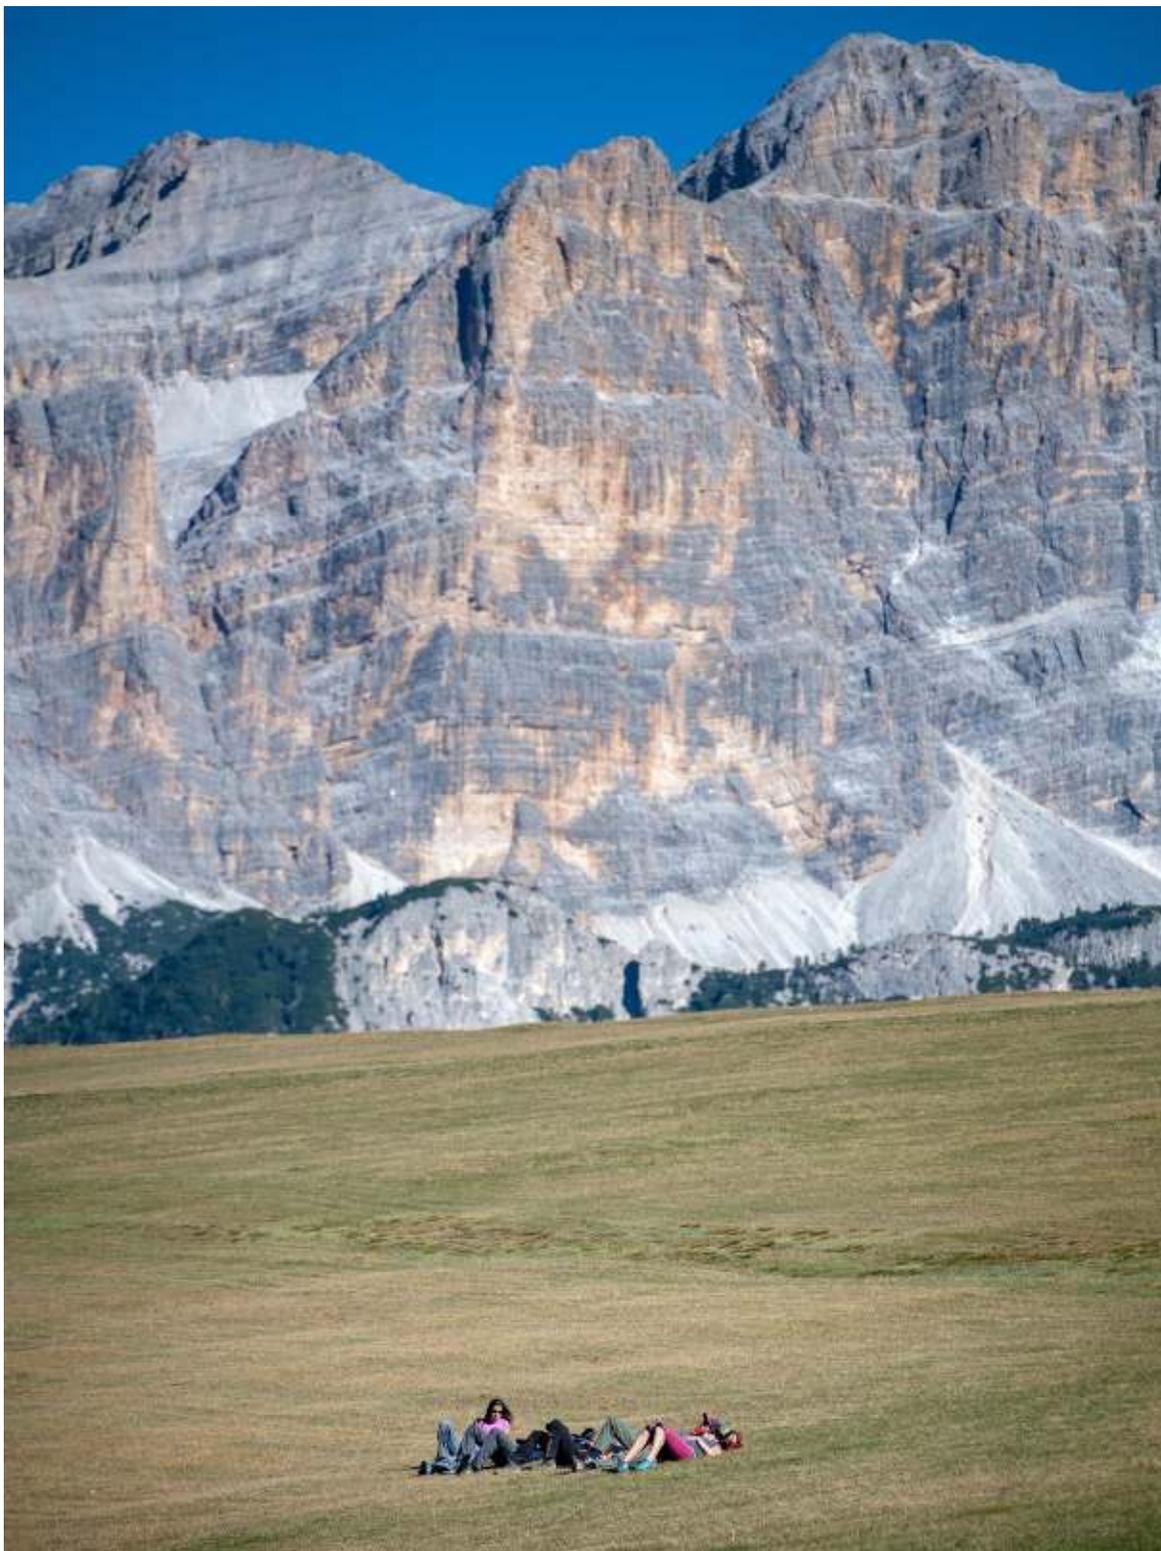

Ostuni, the whitewashed, Medieval, city of Puglia, on top of a hill dominating the blue sea.

Paragon 700 is the red palace inside the white city.

A quintessentially Mediterranean property with a cosmopolitan soul and a unique feature: 19000 square feet garden in the center of the old town.

A one of a kind place.

A ski safari in the Dolomites, a road bike tour on the Prosecco hills, hiking Sardinia's majestic peaks and diving into its wild blue waters, or walking from Portovenere to Portofino exploring Cinque Terre colored towns.

Dolomite Mountains is a DMC specialized in active tourism another way to explore Italy.
